

Brian Deon Pratt

July 2, 1961 - June 26, 2024

Brian Deon Pratt, born July 2, 1961, deceased June 26, 2024.

Brian was born almost 200 years later than he should have been. He was an avid hunter and mountain man, known as "Bloody Knives". His passions were hunting, fishing, writing, reading, cooking and sketching. Brian loved sharing his passions with family and friends, be it cooking, hunting, fishing or anything else.

Brian enjoyed working at OSI for a number of years and thought highly of his coworkers. He also spent a number of years working at Sandy City Parks Department, that he enjoyed. He also worked on and off with our dear friend Don, in his landscape business.

Brian wasn't perfect, he made some mistakes in life, and struggled with his demons (later found to be brain cancer). But above everything, he loved his family and friends. He fought a courageous battle with cancer to the end.

Brian was preceded in death by Dad (Ron Pratt), Mom (Jeanette Marquardson), Sister (Angela Parks) and other relatives. He is survived by brothers Jeff (Jan), Wayne (Brooke), nieces Ashley, Alexandra, Mikenzie, and many other nieces, nephews, cousins and a few uncles.

Brian, may you rest in God's grace, reunited with family and friends, whole and pain free, till we meet again. Amen.

Brian was cremated, per his request, there were no services. For family and friends, a celebration of his life will be held at Club 90, 9065 south Monroe Street, Sandy, UT. From 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm, Wednesday July 17, 2024. (You must be 21 or older, with valid ID to enter)

“ Seth and I knew Brian when we worked together at Mountain View Golf Course, he was good to us by taking the time to show me what I was doing wrong and explaining what I needed to do to do it right. When we could we play a round of golf. I know there is a special place in heaven for Brian where he can be with his loved ones and reminisce about the things he loved to do here. Until we meet again.
