“ I am so sad to hear of her passing, and unable to make the Service today, you all are in my thoughts. Sending all my love, Janet

“ *I had the privilege to know Carma for years. She and I made a bond that was so important to me. She blessed my life with her stories about her adventures and lunches with her sisters, the love she had for her wonderful children and husband, and her amazing fudge and divinity every Christmas. She was a very dear friend to me and I feel so blessed to have known her. Instead of my planned visit every month to last 20 minutes ( I didn't want to talk her ear off), I ended up staying for hours laughing, sharing our opinions, talking about how much we wanted spring to come, the love we had for Christ, and silly stories that we would laugh forever about. I was able to see her at the hospital one evening and was so grateful to give her a hug and a kiss on the cheek. She not only touched my life, but everyone around her. She never complained. She viewed life as a beautiful journey. Carma, thank you for sharing your time with me. You have been a true example of Christ. So grateful for the profound influence you have made on my life. Love you dearly,

“ From the first time I met Carma I knew she was something special. We would sit by each other in Relief Society every week. At first I thought she was the serious type but then she would surprise me with a funny comment and we would just laugh. After laughing she would lean over to me and say, "you need to be quite!" My last visit with Carma was very special. Even though she was getting weak and tired she was still as sweet as always. I had just realized that Carma's name was Carma "Sweet" Giles-not Carma "Sweet" Giles. All these years I thought it was so amazing that her name was perfect for her! When I told her that she told me, "you can call me Carma Sweet!" I will miss her each and every day! Love you Carma❤️ Bonnie Dewey
