

Carrie Anne Anderson

May 17, 1968 - January 29, 2019

Carrie Anne Anderson, 50, was released from pain January 29, 2019 after a long and hard fight against cancer. She was surrounded by the love of her family and friends in West Jordan as she took her last breath, leaving many broken hearts. She was born May 17, 1968 and was raised by Edward and Kathleen Naylor along with three brothers: William, Ronald and Kevin Naylor.

Carrie Anne married and divorced Harry W Hellam III at a young age, raising her son as a single parent; always striving to make a better life for her small family. This led her to move from place to place experiencing new areas, searching for her happiness. She had many loves and friends along the way, ultimately deciding to use her personal experiences to help others. Carrie Anne went back to school in Oregon earning multiple degrees and certificates out of her desire and passion for helping others, especially those battling addiction and abuse. Though she loved what she did, the births of her grandchildren tugged at her heart. She decided to give up her working life in favor of being a full-time "Memaw" (Grandma). Shortly after moving back to Utah, Carrie Anne was diagnosed with terminal cancer. Determined to live her life to it's fullest, she doubled down her efforts to share as much love as she could with those around her. Carrie Anne selflessly moved in with her son and his family to help in raising her "littles" (grandchildren) which allowed her son to pursue his dreams and making her extremely proud of his own selfless choice. Carrie Anne lived a life of compassion, love, respect for others and was a selfless and beautiful soul. She poured herself and her passions into her grandchildren. Carrie Anne fought for years against her cancer, refusing to give up so that she could be with them, calling them the light of her life. She was fearless and courageous stating that she wasn't scared to die, but that she was not ready because she knew she had so much love left to give to the world. The pain and suffering eventually became too much for even her strong spirit.

She is survived by her loving parents, Edward and Kathleen Naylor; her son and his wife, Harry and Michelle Hellam; Grandchildren, Edward, Harrison, and Abigail Hellam; Many loving brothers, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

Services will be held later in the spring to celebrate the life she led and the memories she is leaving in our hearts.

Thank you to Serenity Funeral Home Services and the hospice medical staff for the loving care provided to Carrie Anne during her last days to make her as comfortable as possible.

Tribute Wall

“ Carrie Anne Anderson

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear about this it makes my heart ache Carrie was a super good person I am just speechless and very sad

William Barr - September 12, 2023 at 08:03 PM

“ *Carrie was SO pretty she inspired me to care again
Facebook.com/NASFamily*

JayMee Jackson Richens - January 25, 2021 at 03:59 AM

“ My abusive husband took my baby and left having all the power, money and friends. Carrie broke my window seeing me on the ground too far in despair to even answer the door. She dragged me to my feet and made me get a job at Totems. She saved my life!- We were neighbors and best frienda till she moved to Oregon. Her son was her WORLD!-!

JayMee Jackson Richens - January 25, 2021 at 03:56 AM

VR

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Valarie Rea - February 06, 2019 at 05:28 PM

VR

“ Carrie Anne was a true light in my life. She included me in her Christmas day celebrations the last two years she was here in Portland. She was a friend who I knew I could call no matter how much time had passed between and we could pick up as if we'd seen each other yesterday. She is one of the most compassionate and kind humans I have been blessed to call my friend.

Valarie Rea - February 06, 2019 at 05:27 PM

VR

Carrie Anne is so radiant here. Look at that smile!

Valarie Rea - February 06, 2019 at 05:30 PM

MT

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Mary Trinnaman - February 05, 2019 at 06:23 PM

EA

I took this pic about 2 years ago now. This is one of the turtle topiaries CarrieAnne was making. And the succulents she put together/made for me are still growing strong. I miss you my dear cousin. Oh how I miss you...

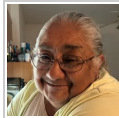

Erin Allred - June 16, 2020 at 09:25 PM

S

“ 5 files added to the album Memories Album

Serenity Funeral Home - February 01, 2019 at 03:42 PM

Beautiful pictures. You will be missed. Love Lupe 💜

Lupe Pena - February 01, 2019 at 10:34 PM

HI

So glad you have those pictures. There is a softness and peace in them, that I have seldom seen in people. She was so good with Lei Lani's father when he was failing. Her heart was full of love.

Harry Hellam II - February 01, 2019 at 10:39 PM