“ Dear cousin, Chad!

Thank you so much for being the awesome person that you were. In the face of adversity, you always rose above and came out stronger every time. You would give the shirt off your back to anyone who needed it. You were such a hard worker -- you helped our family countless times with odd jobs, moves & remodeling projects.

But what impressed me the most was the time you regularly took to visit my mother -- not only when she was healthy and still living at home, but also when she was in assisted living. She really enjoyed your visits and was especially happy when you brought Levi by.

Rest in peace -- completely removed from all the cares of the world. Just think... you don't even need to worry about who our next President will be! Try not to laugh too hard when you look down and see the "hot mess" we are all going to be in!! ;-)

Please tell everyone "hi" for me & that I send my deepest love. I look forward to the day when I will be reunited with all of my relatives who have passed on. What a great & glorious day that will be!

Love, ~Patti

“ Dearest nephew, I am so sorry that I'll never be able to see you again on this earth, or have you hug me the way you always would, with your big bear hug, or have you tell me how proud you are of your children and grandchild. I will always have found memories of you, living with your dear siblings and wonderful parents. I even had the the privilege of staying many times at your house in Salt Lake and being like a SISTER to you during summer breaks when I was a teenager. GOOD MEMORIES OF YOU CHAD!! We love you and we will miss you but we know that heaven is a good place and that we will ALL be together again. If you get a chance, please give everyone in heaven, a big hug from me!! LOVE YOU CHAD!! Aunt DeAnn and Uncle Clyde and family

“ Hey Chadster... Wow I can't believe you are really no longer with us cousin! I have been reflecting back years ago when we would reunite during our family vacations from Billings and going through Logan and Salt Lake City. It was always fun to see you and Uncle Jerry, Aunt Sharin, and our other cousins. Thanks for giving me such a good deal on that big cruiser of a motorcycle!! I have been riding it when the weather is good and I know that it was your baby and you took really good care of it, and I will do the same, keeping it clean, all the chrome shiny, the saddle bags treated with leather conditioner, and the fringe free in the wind! I will miss your unexpected visits and your hearty laugh. Until we meet again...

Love you buddy!!!

Your cousin,

Sky
