

Cherishkween Fuatino Faamausili

August 12, 2000 - December 22, 2021

Cherishkween Fuatino Faamausili, at the young age of 21, has departed this world and is now an angel in heaven. Cherish passed away on December 22, 2021 from a terrible accident in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Cherish was born on August 12, 2000 in Hayward, CA and raised in Kearns, UT where she lived for the remainder of her life. A beautiful chubby baby she was. Cherish was the youngest of 13 children and took advantage of her role as the baby of the family. She loved the attention and being spoiled by everyone. She was such a happy child with a contagious laugh and smile.

Cherish had many talents but her main passion was dancing. She was a beautiful dancer. She also loved music, singing, fashion, and makeup. She made great friendships throughout high school and there she also met the love of her life, Benjamin Paulo.

Cherish was preceded in death by her oldest brother, Tavita Dave Faamausili, who recently had just passed away 20 days earlier on December 2, 2021. Cherish is survived by her parents, Kueni and Tepora, her siblings, her many nieces & nephews, and of course her love.

A memorial service will be held on January 7, 2022 at the Pesega ward located at:

4605 West Point Drive
West Valley City, Ut 84120

Family Service: 10am-12pm
Bishops Service: 1pm-2pm

Her burial service will follow at 2:30pm at the Redwood Memorial Cemetery located at:
6500 South Redwood Rd
Taylorsville, Ut 84123

Previous Events

Family Service

JAN 7. 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM (MT)

Pesega Samoan Ward
4605 Westpoint Dr
West Valley City, UT 84119

Bishops Service

JAN 7. 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM (MT)

Pesega Samoan Ward
4605 Westpoint Dr
West Valley City, UT 84119

Tribute Wall

“ Cherishkween Fuatino Faamausili

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM