

Chloe Jo Brown

June 22, 2010 - November 10, 2024

Funeral Service Link - Thursday, November 14th, 2024 at 11:00am

https://www.youtube.com/live/_VFqe6RzkV4?si=s8VQ-wdnuw-BGYGC

“What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us.”

Helen Keller

Chloe Jo Brown, 14, passed from this life on November 10, 2024 in her home in Saratoga Springs, UT after battling depression. On June 22, 2010 in West Jordan, UT, Chloe was born to her adoring parents Matt and Mandy Brown. We treasure the 14 years we have had to be with her and watch her grow.

Chloe is impossible to boil down to simple words. She was larger than life, with a big beautiful smile and wonderful dimples that filled a room. She loved jokes, particularly awkward ones. She loved making people laugh. She loved fiercely. Whether it was all things Disney, or Hamilton, or Bluey, if she loved it - you knew it. She was accomplished in anything that she put her mind to and loved doing so many things. For many years her sport of choice was softball, and she made some lifelong friends from the many teams she was on. Later, it was basketball, and most recently it was boxing. We have such great love for her teammates, coaches, and friends we made along the way.

She loved challenging herself and excelling where she could. She was determined to learn to play the guitar, and was quickly becoming a good guitar player. She loved drawing sketches and we will cherish some of the things we've found along the way. She was simply so good at anything she put her mind and soul into. And that included trying to be a friend. Chloe had the unique ability to see people as they were, and to accept them whole-heartedly for being them. She radiated so much love outward, but the depression prevented her from allowing any of that love to bounce back inward.

As one kind teacher so eloquently related: "She inspired daily with her brilliance, creativity, and wit. More than anything, she was the kind of person that always sought to bring happiness to others...

If I can live to become just half of the person she already was at such a young age, I will know I've done something right."

Chloe, we love and miss you so much. We know you are now free from this incredible monster and wrapped in the loving arms of your Heavenly Father. We look forward with hope to the day when we can hold you in our arms again and ask how your day was.

To her friends and all that knew and loved her: Love each other. Help each other. Care for each other. Reach out. Get help. You are never alone, and despite the night, the morning always comes.

Chloe is survived by her parents, Matt and Mandy Brown; her loving brothers Ethan and Luke; her great-grandma Mona Brown; grandparents, David and Jeanine Brown, Fred and Nancy Luthy, and Tod and Dawn Shirley; many aunts, uncles, and cousins; and neighbors and friends that she cared so much about. She was preceded in death by her uncle Bobby Brown and many great-grandparents.

Services for Chloe include: a viewing on Wednesday, November 13, 2024 from 6:00pm - 8:00pm at the church at 270 Harvest Hills Blvd, Saratoga Springs, UT; on Thursday, November 14, 2024 a viewing from 10:00am to 10:30am and a funeral at 11:00am. The burial will take place afterwards at Pony Express Memorial Cemetery at 4648 North Eagle Mountain Blvd, Eagle Mountain, UT.

Previous Events

Viewing

NOV 13. 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM (MT)

Harvest Hills 8th Ward
270 W Harvest Hills Blvd
Saratoga Springs, UT 84045

Viewing

NOV 14. 10:00 AM - 10:30 AM (MT)

Harvest Hills 8th Ward
270 W Harvest Hills Blvd
Saratoga Springs, UT 84045

Funeral Service

NOV 14. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (MT)

Harvest Hills 8th Ward
270 W Harvest Hills Blvd
Saratoga Springs, UT 84045

Burial

NOV 14. 12:30 PM - 1:00 PM (MT)

Pony Express Memorial Cemetery
4648 North Eagle Mountain Boulevard
Eagle Mountain, UT 84005

Tribute Wall

JD

“ I didn't have a lot of time with her but she was In my stage craft class. I so wanted to be friends with her and her group. MMe being the annoying little sevie I was I pushed in and they did not quite accept me, exsept Chloe. I would talk to her a little after that class like helping stage crew one time and talking to her in the al a carte line always wanting to get close but thought she thought I was weird plus didnt even know her name. I was never good at asking and it would be weird to ask when I'd known her so I did not. when everyone said she died I felt like it was her but I did not know only today did I follow up on that it the year book. I was so sad I did not care all to much not knowing it was her at the time but now i wanna say she was loved.

Johnny davis - December 03, 2025 at 05:35 PM

RI

“ I miss them every day, I can't believe it's been a year. I still have trouble even just fathoming I can't talk to them anymore laugh with them cry with them or just pass the time I will continue to miss you every day

River - November 10, 2025 at 12:08 AM

KI

“ She meant a lot to many people and got my name right every time other than some people. I hate seeing this happen to a person so young but It does happen and it is very sad. I heard of her passing late and it really upset me, especially because i was not able to go to her funeral. I know its almost been a year since she passed but wanted to share. Kieran Roney

Kieran - October 24, 2025 at 05:18 PM

RA

“Chloe was one of my moms students and every day dering and after Joseph I would run and give her a hug. She was 1 of my favorite people

RHILEY Anderson

Rhiley anderson - July 11, 2025 at 02:23 AM

LH

“Chloe was a very special person to me and im sure she was to everyone she met. She was one of the funniest people I knew and we would always eat lunch together on B days. She was super good at drawing and she would always laugh at me whenever i would "draw". I thought it was funny when she laughed at my drawings though. for my birthday in 7th grade, she drew me this adorable picture of my dog, Minnie, and i just stared at it because something about it just felt special. I think i can speak for everybody that she would always light up peoples day whenever they saw her. She was a very special friend to me, but I know that she is no longer suffering here anymore.

Lily Haslund - December 27, 2024 at 10:25 AM

ML

“Chloe was in my eight grade PE class she was funny and kind and would always make me laugh and I would see her either when we were working on Joseph or this year when we sat at the same lunch table. Chloe was an amazing person you could laugh with over share about cartoons with or just talk you she was really a light in my life that I will never forget. I wish I had talked to her more while she was still here I hope you've found your peace Chloe you and your light will never be forgotten.

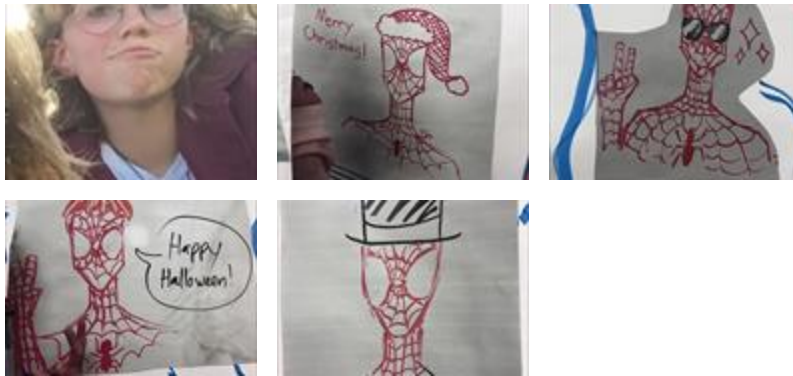

Maddie Lambert - December 24, 2024 at 12:37 AM

GR

“Chloe was an awesome person even if I had no chance to talk formally or ask to her her friend I can truly say that she was amazing, any piece of herself was the most beautiful thing I’ve experienced. I can say that I’m grateful to know her and being able to interact with her. I regret and I will always because I didn’t ask her to be my friend. I’m sorry Chloe Brown, I’m truly sorry. Rest in peace

I will share some memories of her

Graciela - December 18, 2024 at 06:01 PM

GE

“Chole was one of the nicest people I've ever met in my life!! Last year I had the opportunity to work Joseph with her and the joke that would make us all laugh was really funny. She always tried to make everyone smile whenever she could. This year I had the opportunity to be in Tech Crew with her and just seeing her there making everyone bond was amazing. I also had English with her and we would always get our assignment early and work on it together and after we finished we would just dip cause we hated that class. Fly high you will NEVER be forgotten

Gabe Eng - November 22, 2024 at 04:29 PM

HA

“ She was so kind and so funny it's so sad on what happened I miss her so much 😭

Hayden - November 22, 2024 at 02:03 PM

AS

“ Chloe was an absolute joy to be around. My son was good friends with Chloe, which gave me the privilege of knowing her too. Her light shone so brightly, and continues to shine in our memories of her. She made us laugh and was a safe person for many people needing love and support. The services were beautiful, and the love and support her parents offered to hundreds of grieving individuals in spite of their own unimaginable grief was remarkable, and gave us a glimpse into where Chloe learned to be the kind and giving human she was. Matt and Mandy, what a beautiful person your daughter is, and what wonderful parents you have been and continue to be to her. Thank you for sharing her with us.

Amy S. - November 21, 2024 at 12:37 AM

NB

“ Im sorry for your loss. Never knew this young girl, but my niece wss close friends with her. Parents, listen to your children. They look up to you for your guidance and care. Not your judgment. The "church" is not the answer. None of those people are qualified to care for your child. You are. So many people have suffered this awful thing because you think some guy who is told hes leading a ward has all the right answers. Parents you are their answer. I really hope Chloe is at peace now. My daughter is 14 and I cant ever imagine this. I hope your whole family can remember what a wonderful child you had, no matter their decision. Parents, love your children and protect them.

Nota Bishop - November 20, 2024 at 12:50 AM

MB

I considered requesting this comment be removed, but rather thought I'd address it pretty publicly. First - seeing as how you did not know Chloe, I must say it's a pretty large leap you are making to think you know her and our situation and it takes a pretty large ego to decide to first think it and second to actually go ahead and post it.

I also doubt you will come back to read this, but if you do... I think one thing you got right is this - the whole situation is awful. All of it. Knowing other kids are struggling? Awful. Going through this? Awful. The struggles Chloe suffered? Awful. Especially awful because for the last couple of years Chloe has been working with a number of trained mental health professionals to work through the challenges she was facing. At no time, or at any point was she ever told, insinuated, or treated like the church was the answer or the good brothers who have led our ward were responsible to help. To be transparent, which is frankly more than you deserve, she hadn't ever even discussed any of her challenges with them that I am aware of. Because of that, I would completely agree with you that they are not qualified (generally) to care for my children. Nor was this situation treated as such.

I hope for your sake you do never have to go through this. And hope for your sake that you learn the decency to not make comments on things you know quite little about.

Matt Brown - November 20, 2024 at 06:40 PM

CB

Well said, Matt. Im a friend of your mother and am more sorry than I can tell you for all you and your family have gone through. My prayer is that our Heavenly Father bless and keep you all. ❤️

Carol Bridges - November 21, 2024 at 06:56 PM

SD

“ Chloe was one of my friends she made me feel safe and when I was talking to her either about Hamilton or bluey we would laugh and giggle she and I used to walk to our classes in trailers together after drama and we would talk about tuck everlasting how she was going to be the villain thinking about such memories make me smile me (an 8th grader) would think she is the cool 9th grader and I would've loved to tell her that..make sure you go say hi to your Chloe's your friends your loved ones even if you don't think they need it...never hurts to try..love you Chloe and rest in peace 💙💚
LLCB

Saya Dyson - November 19, 2024 at 11:19 PM

RA

“ She was my BFF through elementary and I remember hanging out with her I will never forget you Chloe I wish I had seen you sooner after elementary but our memories will never be forgotten. ❤️👍

Raegan - November 19, 2024 at 01:06 AM

MC

“ I didn't know her super well, but I ate lunch with her quite a few times in the past while. She was amazing at making people laugh and she always had light to her. She was always smiling and making jokes, or painting someone's nails. I love her so much and I miss her so much. Love you Chloe 💙

Makayla Cook - November 17, 2024 at 10:21 PM

MF

“ I remember Chloe always coming over to my house and hanging out with my sister Madi. Her laugh was always so recognizable, I always knew when she was over. She was also very sweet. She always said hi to me and invited me to watch movies with her and my sister. She also never failed to make me laugh. I have one specific memory of Chloe that makes me laugh every time I recall it. I went to go visit my sister at Vista and I was with my friend group and that included Chloe’s older brother, Ethan. We were walking down the hallway and Chloe comes up, smacks Ethan on the back of the head and says, “Go back to your own school you asshat!” I was laughing so hard.

MacKenzie Flowers - November 17, 2024 at 03:45 PM

MB

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Mandy Brown - November 16, 2024 at 12:24 AM

JP

I LOVE this!! Thank you for sharing it for all of us! Love you!

Chloe had a true light within her that was a beacon to all of those around her. She drew people in, made sure they were cared for, happy, and enjoying themselves. If we have learned nothing this week but how to be better humans who look out for one another, love each other, and let others know it, then we have learned to "Love Like Chloe."

Miss you sweet girl!

Jana Pendleton - November 19, 2024 at 03:03 PM

MB

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Mandy Brown - November 15, 2024 at 11:43 PM

MR

“ I remember she was my first friend in 1st grade. I always remember her being so competitive when we would play sports in recess and she was absolutely awesome at kickball. Even though I went to a different school in middle school and we drifted apart, those 6 years were so much better with Chloe around. I remember how much she sketched and how many moments where we were in awkward silence after she would make a joke and laugh our hearts out after. I remember all the laughs and all her smiles when we were friends. I will always remember her! I wish I kept better in touch this past couple years in middle school but I will always have memories with her.

Marisa Randall - November 15, 2024 at 06:54 PM

SB

“Chloe was in my Kindergarten class all the way through third grade. In fourth grade, I loved to Idaho. She was always such a light and was so nice to everyone. She made sure people around her were included and felt loved. Miss you Chloe❤️

Shelby Butler - November 15, 2024 at 06:01 PM

BG

“ I first met Chloe in History class 8th grade year. She we so funny, we would always try to get the teacher to seat us together, because we had so much fun together. She was the only reason I really liked my history class. I would always look forward to seeing her in the morning, because she would always make my day so much better. I remember that Chloe could play the guitar. I told her that I had always wanted to learn. She showed me videos of her playing, it was so cool. Her showing me those videos, and telling me I could do it, really encouraged me to learn how to play. She was so encouraging and kind.

Even after we didn't share a class anymore we would still see each other in the halls. She would wave and smile at me. She would always bring me and others around her joy and happiness.

My heart broken when I heard the news, I was on a trip so I got the message about Chloe and my heart sank. My friends told me a day before the funeral so I could watch it online.

I will always remember how her smile could light up a room, and how she could make anyone laugh. She was such a special person. I really wish I could have gotten to know her more.

But I believe that Heavenly Father had a different plan for Chloe. I know that she is very happy where she is and that she will be grateful for everyone who has loved her and been her friend.

We miss you Chloe Jo Brown, may you fly high and remember those who have loved you. 🕊️💙💚🕊️

Brynn Gauruder - November 15, 2024 at 02:35 PM

BG

“ Brynn Gauruder lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Brynn Gauruder - November 15, 2024 at 02:09 PM

AN

“ Not the best quality photo, but this is right after we won the trophy in sixth grade kickball. Chloe was so good at it

anonymous - November 15, 2024 at 12:42 PM

RU

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Ruver - November 15, 2024 at 11:52 AM

RI

“ River lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

River - November 15, 2024 at 10:32 AM

RI

“ I knew Chloe as Alex an amazing trans masc friend who was always there for me when I needed him and I want to express how much he helped me throughout all of middle school so thank you, and I'm sorry I wasn't there more

River - November 15, 2024 at 12:08 AM

MK

“ Chloe was such an indescribable person. Loving such a special person like her made me feel so connected to the love that she showed constantly. The laughs we had will never leave me. The memories she made with me will carry me my whole life. I can't wait to see her again in the celestial kingdom. Thank you, Chloe, for being one of the best people I know. You are so loved. Thank you for loving me. I love you so much.

McKenzie Kirtley - November 14, 2024 at 10:41 PM

OW

“ Owen lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

owen - November 14, 2024 at 09:48 PM

TA

“ I never knew Chloe too well but I wish I knew her better while I had the chance. She would always light up any room she was in and her smile was infectious! I love that girl and I will miss her so much!
LLCB

Taislyn - November 14, 2024 at 05:43 PM

TA

“ Taislyn lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Taislyn - November 14, 2024 at 05:41 PM

AN

“ I'm sorry I wasn't able to help you

anonymous - November 14, 2024 at 04:51 PM

SH

“ we a loved Chloe and cared for her

Shayla - November 14, 2024 at 03:41 PM

JA

“ even tho me and her drifted a lot when middle school started she was my first friend when i switched elementary school. She went up to me, and gave me this necklace i still have to this day. Chloe will forever have a place in my heart for being my first best friend in elementary school

jahiah - November 14, 2024 at 03:09 PM

LS

“ I didn't know her very well, but the things I had heard from her friends and the people who even briefly met her, she was a wonderful person. She was beautiful, she made everyone laugh and always lightened peoples moods no matter what they might've been feeling. She was one of the kindest people I've ever met, she always was smiling and put everyone else first. She will always, always, always be loved. I've never met a person that genuinely said something bad about her, no one ever. A lot of students do, though. Many kids who don't know who she is and the things she's done will talk, and they'll keep talking, but Chloe has so many people who love her, especially here at Vista Heights and will always defend her name and the person she was.

My last moment with her was something so special to me, I was outside her English classroom and she looked at me through the window. I'll never ever forget her big bright smile, how her eyes lit up and her lovely dimples peeking out. To know many people will never be able to experience her as a person, breaks my heart. She was so lovely. Every little wave and every smile she gave me will always be in my mind. I will talk about Chloe for the rest of my life, and I want people to know how amazing and kind she was.

I am so deeply sorry for all her family members as well as her friends. It will always be hard to go through a loss and as someone who has been through a suicide of an extremely close friend, I know how it feels, and if anyone at all needs absolutely anything, I will always be here to help. I would love to be able to help you heal and move on. And to any family member or friend who thinks they might've been able to stop this and thinks it is their fault and they couldn't have saved her. This was Chloe's choice, and no matter how much you may blame yourself, I know you tried. It's going to be okay, and I know more than anything, she's at peace and a lot happier up there than she was down here, and there's no one to blame but people who bully and people who call names. Even after she's gone, people still choose to say and bully. But know that although these people have no morals, we do, and that's all she needs.

Thank you for everything, Chloe, You'll always be loved.

Lily Sor - November 14, 2024 at 02:30 PM

XM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Xcite MMA - November 14, 2024 at 01:26 PM

VG

Chloe brown was a loving, fun bright girl that was always there for all of her friends and family she always had this bright smile on her face making people laugh anywhere she went brightening every room she stepped into loving and caring no matter what. She was such a talented young girl, she knew how to box and speak different languages and she played the electric guitar and named it Perry. She is loved widely and we will miss her 💙💚 fly high Chloe brown fly high visleah gravitt - November 14, 2024 at 01:57 PM

SH

“ even though I didn't know Chole that well she was a nice outgoing person who touch so many people's hearts I knew her from basketball playing vs her amazing team and I also knew her Joseph as did many people but she was apart of the community and we will miss her but just remember to look for the light and the love all around you everyday

Shayla - November 14, 2024 at 10:35 AM

MB

“ When I went to elementary school with Chloe, I saw her as the cool kid. I was so shy though, so we only talked once. This year, however, I got to know her through my friends and tech crew. We were both on backstage together, and she would always want me on her side of the stage. I was so excited for her to teach me how to be a good techie, and I think she was too. She was one of the best, everyone said that (including the director). I will always remember her humor and her smile, and how she always lifted everyone up. Fly high, Chloe 💚💙

Malina Balatocan - November 14, 2024 at 09:23 AM

NH

“ The strongest quality I saw in Chloe was her competitiveness and her passion. If she saw that something was wrong she was going to set it right. For example, in the sixth grade during the kickball tournament she saw that our class should've won the last game and she wasn't going to give up until we had rightfully received our trophy. Although this quality can sometimes be intimidating, I love her for it.

Nayda Harmer - November 14, 2024 at 12:31 AM

EM

“ On Monday, I was told that in honor of Chloe, we were wearing blue or green (her favorite colors). People from Vista Heights middle school and American Fork Junior High wore blue and green in memory. She truly influenced people from all over!❤️
These are the pictures from American Fork Junior

Emery - November 14, 2024 at 12:27 AM

EM

“ Though i only met her once or twice, Chloe has a spirit about her that just brightens the room. She can easily make you feel better with just a smile. I know that God is aware of all the struggles everyone is having. He loves her so much and I know she is still with us spiritually❤️

Emery - November 13, 2024 at 11:53 PM

EH

“ Evelyn Hanson lit a candle in memory of
Chloe Jo Brown

evelyn hanson - November 13, 2024 at 10:49 PM

KB

“ Matt and Mandy, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your daughter. Your tribute to Chloe was touching. Although I'd never had the chance to meet Chloe, reading through the many stories from friends and family gives me a good sense of her amazing character and the impact she's had on others. As someone who has dealt with depression through much of my childhood and adult life, I appreciate your messages of hope & kindness, and the reminders to choose love, help and care for everyone around us.

K.C. Bell - November 13, 2024 at 10:41 PM

SH

“Scarlet Hokama:

*this might bring peace
an old lady in my cousins ward heard about the situation and asked my cousin Emery about it today in private.*

She went and told her a bit and this is what she texted my cousin, and I thought it would bring peace to you all context: bailey is her dog that just passed away❤️

*“Emery.... Another thought..... Heavenly Father sees the whole picture. He knows precisely what to do and when best to do it.
He allowed Bailey to journey home because He knew that she was ready and also how much I needed to learn what I am learning because of it.*

*Similar things are likely true for His daughter, Chloe.
He could have prevented it...however Chloe used her agency and
He knew to what degree she was aware and able to make those decisions.... Or not.*

She is His daughter, she made a choice and He allowed her to come home. You or Scarlet weren't going to stop that. He is her God.

*I love your caring heart. You are filled with light and hope. Stay that way, kk, Em? Sure love and appreciate you.💖 I hope so much that you and your cousin find even more peace in the Temple this week.
Remember that you can pray for your friend who journeyed on.
Wish her the best and know she made this decision as Gods daughter ...which she will learn more about very quickly.*

She's in His hands and always has been (not in yours or your cousins or anyone's) even if she didn't know Him very well. She will get to know Him now though and He will help her at this point.

Clearly, this wasn't His wish for her...but He knows what to do with her choices. Stay close to the Savior, Em. He knows how to save all of us.... If we let Him.😊💖🙏”

*follow up text:
bless her heart❤️*

Scarlet Hokama - November 13, 2024 at 10:40 PM

JT

“ Chloe was so fun and welcoming. I'm a pretty shy person and I have a hard time talking to people, Chloe made everything easier, she made everything more fun, and she made everything memorable. She touched so many lives with her kindness, her humor, and her wit. I will miss her so much!

Jocelynn Throckmorton - November 13, 2024 at 10:00 PM

TB

“ Tiffany Brown lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Tiffany Brown - November 13, 2024 at 09:48 PM

BS

I didn't know chloe that well. But we rode the same bus. She was so kind she was the kind of person that could make you laugh at any given moment. She was so cool with her awesome hair and leather jacket she wore. Fly high Chloe you are so loved. ❤️💙🙏

Bella Santos - November 13, 2024 at 10:12 PM

FH

“ Chloe would always make basketball so fun. She made me feel really loved and appreciated on the basketball team. We love you Chloe. 💙💚

Faith Horenstein - November 13, 2024 at 09:46 PM

AS

“ I met her in my 8th grade year In pe, she was amazing, she was awesome at basketball I got to be friends with her and then I got to hang out with her again in tech crew when we worked on Joseph and the Technicolor Dreamcoat together! She was always fun to be around and made show nights less stressful. My condolences to all the family and the friends of her

Ally Sumsion - November 13, 2024 at 09:25 PM

IH

“ Chloe was one of my best friends on my softball team. When I first joined she was the first one to welcome me and she was one of the only girls that went to my school so we could relate. Chloe was an amazing person and friend and she always cheered people up.

Isabella Hertel - November 13, 2024 at 08:52 PM

EL

“ Ella lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

ella - November 13, 2024 at 08:49 PM

EL

“ I love Chloe she was so sweet to everyone and she was really good at basketball and chloe cared about everyone I will miss her so much

ella - November 13, 2024 at 08:42 PM

ES

“ One of my favorite Chloe memories was right after the closing night of Joseph. Everyone with all their stage makeup kissed her face and she called herself the "King of Hoes." She also led us all in obnoxiously loud (to the poor bystanders at the in and out) Hamilton karaoke. Chloe made Vista a better place, and no room could ever be boring if she was there. I love her and miss her so much 💙💚

Eliana Shipp - November 13, 2024 at 07:56 PM

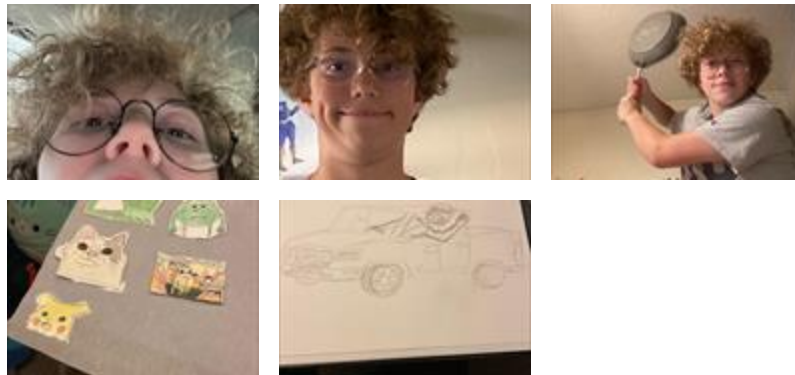

AB

“ She was one of the best basketball players I knew, and you could tell she loved it. She is such an inspiration. Chloe was an amazing person.

Alexa Bevans - November 13, 2024 at 06:48 PM

MT

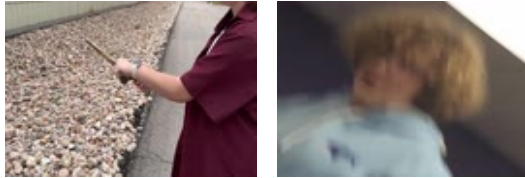

“ She loved drawing. Such an inspiration. Chloe was truly amazing.

Micah Torres - November 13, 2024 at 05:49 PM

MT

“ We loved making YouTube videos together.

Micah Torres - November 13, 2024 at 05:12 PM

“ Yatao Lu sent a virtual gift in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Yatao Lu - November 13, 2024 at 01:44 PM

“ Yatao Lu lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Yatao Lu - November 13, 2024 at 01:42 PM

KB

“ Chloe was the sweetest person ever! She always knew how to make others laugh and smile always was there for others and never judged anyone. Chloe and my sister Kaydence were very close, and that's how I got to know Chloe, she always knew how to help someone and she always looked out for others. Heaven has gained another angel!

Kayleigh Blatt - November 13, 2024 at 01:36 PM

JP

“ I remember in history 8 grade year every week or so we would do this debate and she came up with the most cleaver ideas and they were funny especially the time were she made a rap about her protest and she will always be there Fly high Chloe💚💙

Justin Perrin - November 13, 2024 at 01:26 PM

KM

“ Chloe was kindest person I knew, she was an amazing friend. She had such a kind heart.. I knew her as a friend and as a peer, she was so caring and always put others before her. I will always look back and cherish all of the memories she made.

Ksenya McGill - November 13, 2024 at 01:21 PM

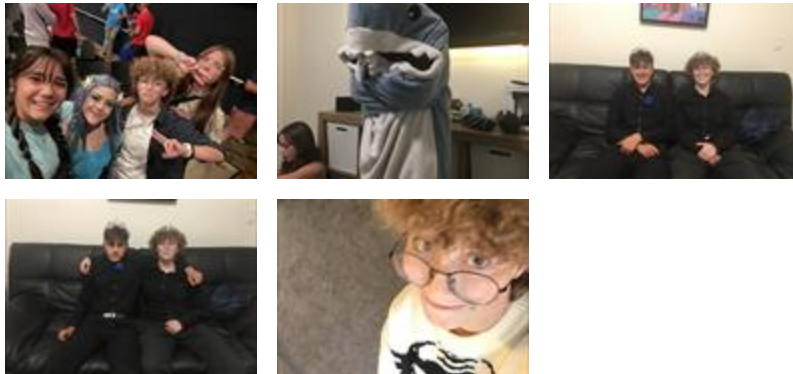

BW

“ so I was her friend and I am still am luckily she is in a better place now we love her she was always so sweet and she is super pretty she always looks good in pictures everyone cares for her and loves her

Brylee Whipple - November 13, 2024 at 01:12 PM

AH

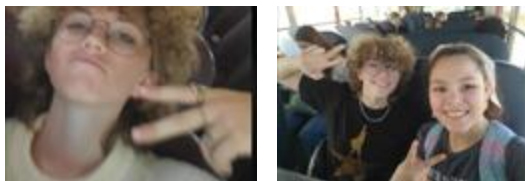

“ I loved Chloe so much and i still do. She was an an amazing teammate and best friend. She was always there to support me and listen to me. If i was going through anything hard in my life, she was right there next to me and always had my back. I cherish all the memories we had together.

Alexa Haws - November 13, 2024 at 10:12 AM

PY

“ I didn't really get to know her till 7th and 8th grade on the bus rides. Then this year she was my bus buddy. Everyday to school we would do the New York Times games and after school we would just talk. I don't remember what we talked about just the laughing and smiling from both of us. We Love you Chloe 🤍💙🕊️ Fligh High

Pyrsephani - November 13, 2024 at 09:57 AM

AW

“ When I first met her, I was very insecure about myself, thinking someone as cool as she wouldn't want to be around someone like me. But this year, I got to know her better. I learned that she wasn't the type to judge other people, and I knew that she didn't judge me. The more time I spent with her, the more I realized that she was such an amazing person. She was funny, kind, outgoing, and so amazingly amazing. I was looking forward to becoming better friends with her, but I'm so incredibly grateful for the times we had together. I'm so glad that I knew her.

Anne-Noelle Woodruff - November 13, 2024 at 09:24 AM

CG

“ What a beautiful young person ! My thoughts and prayers for family and friends . 🙏🙏🥹

Connie Gewirtz - November 13, 2024 at 09:15 AM

AJ

“ I worked backstage with her on the VHMS production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat last year, she was such a light backstage. I love her and will miss her.

Anahi Jacobsen - November 13, 2024 at 08:30 AM

ST

“Chloe was so unique. She created such a fun and special environment. She said she was the king of awkwardness because she would just stand there and be awkward but I think that is the reason why we got along well. I've known Chloe since first grade. I got to see her hair go from straight to really curly. I always saw Chloe as cool. I always told her that she was literally the coolest person I've ever met. She had the leather jacket and everything. Chloe gave the best hugs. I remember that every night after every performance of the musical last year, Joseph and The Amazing Technicolored Dreamcoat, Chloe would just come towards me and give me the biggest hug. And when I told her that she gives the best hugs she would just squeeze me so tightly. She made me feel so loved.

I admired how she loved basketball and Hamilton. I remember hanging out with her last year and we were driving to one of her Basketball games and we were in the backseats just screaming to Hamilton.

Chloe had something special in her. Her light shined brighter than the rest.

I am praying for those who need comfort and peace in their hearts. I know we will be able to live back with Chloe someday in the celestial kingdom.

I will always remember her kindness, her hugs, the rings she wore, her sense of humor, her curly hair, her wanting to help, her talent, and her everlasting soul.

Skylee Thornton - November 13, 2024 at 01:18 AM

SS

“Chloe you are still radiating love. When I first moved into the area and got called to the YW you were one of the first people to make me feel comfortable. Every time I saw you it was like seeing my #1 hype woman! As the weeks passed I noticed you were that person for a lot of the girls.

You teach us all so much. We love you and know you are still loving and lifting people up

Sage Smith - November 13, 2024 at 12:49 AM

DH

“My heart sank after hearing the news, my daughter had interacted with her during YW activities and smiled at each other in passing at school. As a matter of fact one of their first interaction was that of Chloe giving her a compliment.

I decided to search Google for an image of Chloe and when I read the comment about her scanning tickets for the band concert and seeing her image; the little interaction I had with her at said concert came flooding my mind. She was so pleasant and so kind, I also loved her style and fashion sense. While I didn't know her, she imprinted on my mind and my heart. She impacted so many lives including that of my daughter, she made her stamp and I'm grateful for the stamp she made on my life. My heart and prayers go out to her family and all others who have been impacted. Embrace the memories.

Danae Hamilton - November 12, 2024 at 10:55 PM

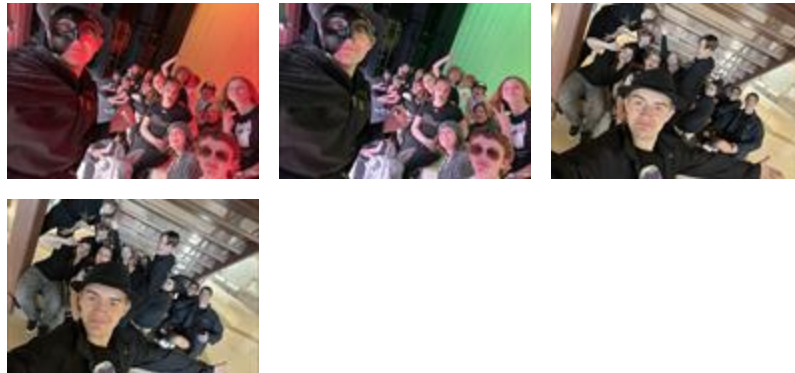

VH

“ Chloe Brown was an amazing person. We met at the beginning of the year but after getting closer it felt like I had known her for forever. She was the type of person who would listen to your struggles while dealing with her own. She listened to me and made me laugh when I was down. She always had a positive attitude whenever I was near her and it made me feel good. I will never forget how she changed my perspective on life.

Vera Hendricks - November 12, 2024 at 10:34 PM

AS

“ I worked with Chloe very closely during VHMS production of Joseph and The Amazing Technicolored Dreamcoat and she was amazing she was like family to all of us Technicians we loved her so much she was a very respectful person, love you Chloe we will miss you

Aidan Simmons - November 12, 2024 at 10:28 PM

MB

“ I met Chloe once, while saying hi to my friend Ally at a band concert while she was stealing Chloe’s job scanning tickets. When Ally texted my young woman chat to pray for her friend, I was heartbroken, thinking “why can’t I do anything to fix this”? Today in seminary we prayed for Chloe Brown. No one knew her personally but we were all weeping and grieving the loss of this amazing girl. I wish I got the chance to know her, and I am grieving and praying so hard for her loss. She is missed by everyone, and I mean everyone. Fly high Chloe 🙏💚💙☐

maddy bryson - November 12, 2024 at 10:14 PM

DH

My heart sank after hearing the news, my daughter had interacted with her during YW activities and smiled at each other in passing at school. As a matter of fact one of their first interaction was that of Chloe giving her a compliment.

I decided to search Google for an image of Chloe and when I read the comment about her scanning tickets for the band concert and seeing her image; the little interaction I had with her at said concert came flooding my mind. She was so pleasant and so kind, I also loved her style and fashion sense. While I didn't know her, she imprinted on my mind and my heart. She impacted so many lives including that of my daughter, she made her stamp and I'm grateful for the stamp she made on my life. My heart and prayers go out to her family and all others who have been impacted. Embrace the memories.

Danae Hamilton - November 12, 2024 at 10:54 PM

KL

“ I had health with her last year and was in Joseph with her. One day during Health the teacher had a cup of Fruit loops at each table for an activity; Chloe and I ate all of them, not knowing that we weren't supposed to eat them. When the teacher went out of the room to get the worksheet she gaurded the door while I ran over and took a HUGE scoop of fruit loops out of the box and ran and sat back down before she came in. We ate half of the other cup of fruit loops again. I love you and I will miss you everyday of my life. I hope you fly high. Also you make a gorgeous sky.💚💙🕊️

Kennedy Love - November 12, 2024 at 09:38 PM

TD

“ Your tribute to Chloe is beautiful. My heart is broken. I am praying for your family.

Tanner Dietrich - November 12, 2024 at 08:40 PM

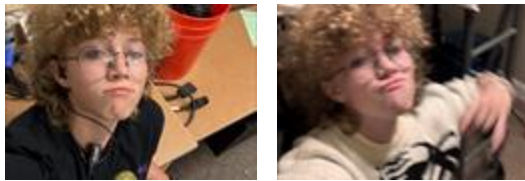

SS

“ In math class she would always draw dinosaurs on the whiteboards and name them either bob, Fred, or Jerry. She is an amazing person and an even better friend. I miss her so much and will never forget her.

Sarah Shoff - November 12, 2024 at 08:32 PM

AL

“Chloe was such an inspiration in my life. She was apart of the tech crew for Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat and that was were we really bonded. She would always give me hugs and cheer me up when I was feeling down. That last time I spoke with her was before my little brother's band concert. She was checking tickets and I decided to stay with her until the concert started. I kept trying to steal her job, only to need her help every time. It was a happy and funny memory that I will never forget. May we all learn to say I love you without hesitation, because that could be life saving.

Ally Lambert - November 12, 2024 at 08:31 PM

SL

“ I only met Chloe once, at my son’s birthday party. Even in that brief moment, I could see what a sweet and friendly kid she was, especially with my son, Jacob. He would always talk to me about her and how special their friendship was. I was lucky to capture some pictures of them playing bowling together, and when I look at those photos now, it’s like there’s a halo above her head.

Even though I’m currently in Brazil, thousands of miles away, the news of her passing has left me with an enormous sense of emptiness. Today, I spoke with some young people I’m mentoring about depression, and I shared Chloe’s story with them. They were deeply saddened, but it felt as though Chloe was helping them in that moment, guiding them to understand the importance of seeking help when it’s needed. They even pledged that they would seek help if they ever found themselves struggling, inspired by Chloe’s story.

I’m sure Chloe touched many lives and made a difference—not only for those who knew her closely, but also for me, my son, and his mom, who was Chloe’s teacher in elementary school.

We may never fully understand why things like this happen, but I believe God needed her. She was sent to make a difference in so many lives, and perhaps her passing will inspire others to live more fully and to seek help when they need it—just as she has inspired me.

Thank you, Chloe. We will see you again someday.

Sandro Luiz - November 12, 2024 at 08:07 PM

MT

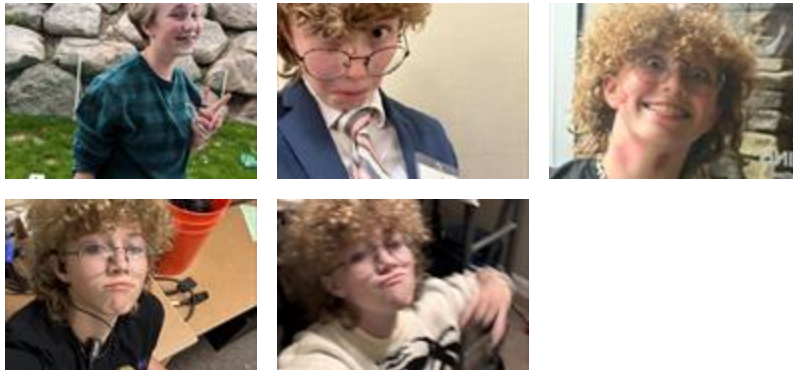

“ We all loved her so much. She was truly an inspiration. I hope that she'll linger in our hearts forever, and bless her family. May we all come to terms with it and be at peace. Chloe lived a good life. She was an amazing friend and cared for so many people. We will forever miss her. But we will forever know she was an absolutely amazing person.

Micah Torres - November 12, 2024 at 07:51 PM

WM

“ In Seminary me and her would sit next to each other, I would give her a pen and my phone and she would go through my Pinterest to find some cute doodles, and when she found some she liked, she would give me a half sleeve, all while I would tell her about a guy I thought was cute or someone who made me mad

Whitney Morgan - November 12, 2024 at 07:22 PM

MB

“Chloe was an amazing friend and an incredible person. She was always so fun to be around, and I'm so glad she was a part of my life. Even though I only got to work backstage with her twice, I always enjoyed her company. She was so fun to talk to and work with. I hope that she's happier now, and that someday we'll see her again. I send my deepest condolences to her family, I can't imagine how difficult this must be for them.

Malina Balatocan - November 12, 2024 at 07:20 PM

SJ

“I was deeply saddened to hear about the loss of your daughter. I work at Health Catalyst and although we haven't met, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you, Matt, and your family during this incredibly difficult time.

Shari Johns

Shari Johns - November 12, 2024 at 06:51 PM

LK

“She was a good friend to Grayson. Such a cute girl. 🧡

Liz Knight - November 12, 2024 at 06:21 PM

LR

“ Mandy, Matt, and dear family-I am so sorry to hear this news. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you grieve this loss. With much love and empathy, Lee Robinson

Lee Robinson - November 12, 2024 at 06:19 PM

LK

“ Matt, Mandy, and family...my heart hurts for you. Chloe was and is such a great girl. So smart and strong. I enjoyed having her over to play with Grayson and for his birthday parties. Also loved her in Primary. This life is incredibly hard at times, but I do know that good times are also in the future as well. I believe Chloe's spirit will be felt and be able to bring you all comfort, like my loved ones have been able to bring me. I will pray for your family and all those affected by this loss. ❤️🙏

Liz Knight - November 12, 2024 at 06:09 PM

SB

“ Our heart breaks 💔 for your family
Much love from us
Sarah, Drew & Alexa Bertram

Sarah Bertram - November 12, 2024 at 06:05 PM

JW

“ Matt, I am so, so, sorry and my heart is with your family. Your daughter sounds like a bright, open, creative, and talented soul, that accepted and loves all those around her. What a gift to those who were blessed to have known her! I've always liked hearing about all the great trips you've taken with your family. You and your family have been such a great example of prioritizing time and adventures with family. Those memories and experiences together are priceless.

Jonathan Williams - November 12, 2024 at 06:00 PM

JK

“ Matt and Family, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Your beautiful tribute and the messages from others show how wonderful a person Chloe was. Wishing you strength, love and beautiful memories, friend.

Joe Kolb - November 12, 2024 at 05:55 PM

BH

“ Matt and Mandy, my heart breaks. I am so sorry to hear of Chloe's passing. As I read about Chloe's life and her achievements and character, I got just a glimpse of what an incredible person she is. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Brett Hinton - November 12, 2024 at 05:39 PM

BS

“ Although I only had the chance to meet Chloe one time and she was adorable! Mandy & Matt I'm sure it is a very hard time. Mandy I have always loved you and the time we spent as kid as well as growing up. The power above is with her and will be taking care of her with open arms until you reunite! Love y'all. Brody'

Brody Stevens - November 12, 2024 at 05:38 PM

HK

“ I remember during fsy we were making a poster and she was so creative and happy

Hewston Knotwell - November 12, 2024 at 05:37 PM

DW

“ Danmei Wang lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Danmei Wang - November 12, 2024 at 05:30 PM

PW

“ Phyllis Waechtler lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Phyllis Waechtler - November 12, 2024 at 05:28 PM

DB

“ Matt and Mandy- I have no words to express my feelings for you, Chloe and your family at this time. Please know that I'm praying for peace and comfort to come to your family.

Daron Bergstrom - November 12, 2024 at 05:01 PM

SF

“ Sherrie A Fuller-Benge lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Sherrie A Fuller-Benge - November 12, 2024 at 04:54 PM

KS

“ Keeping all Chloe's family and friends in our prayers.

Kristy Shaddy - November 12, 2024 at 04:53 PM

JB

“ Jordan Barnes lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Jordan Barnes - November 12, 2024 at 04:31 PM

PR

“ Pat Rocap lit a candle in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Pat Rocap - November 12, 2024 at 04:21 PM

EH

“ Elisabeth Hayashi sent a virtual gift in memory of Chloe Jo Brown

Elisabeth Hayashi - November 12, 2024 at 04:15 PM

EH

“ Elisabeth Hayashi lit a candle in memory of
Chloe Jo Brown

Elisabeth Hayashi - November 12, 2024 at 04:14 PM

MS

“ Both of our daughters had the opportunity to know Chloe. Leila played softball with her & later participated in drama, where Chloe was on stage crew. Isley was in her FSY family & worked with her refing city sports.

We can attest to her amazing personality and gift of being a good friend.

We are saddened by her passing, but know we will see her again. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Brown family. May you find comfort in knowing you have raised a wonderful person.

Melanie Sauvao - November 12, 2024 at 04:06 PM

“ Matt & Mandy, you are constantly in our thoughts and prayers during this time. Our hearts ache for you. Thank you for sharing such a beautiful tribute to Chloe... what an amazing young woman she is!

John Christensen - November 12, 2024 at 04:02 PM

MK

“ Matt and Mandy - There are no words to take away the pain of losing a child. I'm hoping you can feel the love of all of us holding you.

Melissa Kirtz - November 12, 2024 at 03:58 PM

“ God bless, Matt. My heart is broken for you and your wife. Families ARE forever. -Griff

Griffin Osmond - November 12, 2024 at 01:39 PM

CR

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting your daughter Matt, but had to reach out with such a broken heart for you and your family. There are never any words that can heal but prayers can and that is what I am offering for you and your family at this time to be able to seek out the peace and comfort at such a tragic time in your life. May Gos bless you.

Charlene Roesbery - November 12, 2024 at 01:11 PM

PW

Dear Matt and Family,

Our heart is broken for all of you. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Bless you all with peace and comfort.

*Love,
The Waechtler family*

Phyllis Waechtler - November 12, 2024 at 01:44 PM

CR

Matt and family, I like others have shared also feel heartache for your loss. I am so sorry. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Chris Rains - November 12, 2024 at 07:09 PM

Matt and Mandy, words seem so inadequate to express feelings of such magnitude. I am heartbroken for your family at this time. Chloe is amazing and so beautiful and talented. I loved her laugh! She was always so kind to me and my kids. I just remember her being a mini Mandy in so many ways, talented, bright, and fearless. We love your family and will continually pray for you!- Love Denise

Denise Brinley - November 12, 2024 at 09:19 PM

AS

Mandy and family, Chloe seems like such an amazing person. May you feel the many prayers offered and gain strength and peace for every day going forward. You are loved!

Alison Staker - November 12, 2024 at 09:36 PM

BE

Matt and Mandy - although I never met Chloe, it is immediately evident of the goodness that radiated from her. Praying for your family that you'll feel of God's love and peace.

Brian B Eliason - November 13, 2024 at 09:05 AM

JJ

Mandy and Matt, we remember what a joy you brought to our family. Chloe was your exact duplicate. From her beautiful hair to her glowing smile. Please take strength in knowing that she will be with your family forever. Peace will come again.

Aunt JoAnn and Bob Johnson

JoAnn and Robert Johnson - November 13, 2024 at 03:19 PM

MH

I never got to know Chloe that well, but I do remember how fun she was, how much she cared about others, and how much she loved to help when people needed it. Chloe was a friend to everyone. We will miss her.

Macie Hannibal - November 13, 2024 at 04:22 PM

MC

Matt, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers for strength and comfort. Although, I never met your daughter, her beautiful curls and smile looks like they brought joy to others.

Michelle Curry - November 13, 2024 at 06:07 PM

BG

I first met Chloe in History class 8th grade year. She was so funny, we would always try to get the teacher to seat us together, because we had so much fun together. She was the only reason I really liked my history class. I would always look forward to seeing her in the morning, because she would always make my day so much better.

I remember that Chloe could play the guitar. I told her that I had always wanted to learn. She showed me videos of her playing, it was so cool. Her showing me those videos, and telling me I could do it, really encouraged me to learn how to play. She was so encouraging and kind.

Even after we didn't share a class anymore we would still see each other in the halls. She would wave and smile at me. She would always bring me and others around her joy and happiness.

My heart broken when I heard the news, I was on a trip so I got the message about Chloe and my heart sank. My friends told me a day before the funeral so I could watch it online.

I will always remember how her smile could light up a room, and how she could make anyone laugh. She was such a special person. I really wish I could have gotten to know her more.

But I believe that Heavenly Father had a different plan for Chloe. I know that she is very happy where she is and that she will be grateful for everyone who has loved her and been her friend.

We miss you Chloe Jo Brown, may you fly high and remember those who have loved you. 🕊️💙💚🕊️

Brynn Gauruder - November 15, 2024 at 02:31 PM