

Cleria Amalia Espinoza (Muñoz)

March 12, 1942 - November 25, 2013

Cleria Amalia Espinoza (Muñoz)

Cleria Amalia Espinoza, 71, passed away peacefully on November 25, 2013 after a brief battle with cancer, in Provo, Utah. Born on March 12, 1942, in Santiago Chile to Humberto Muñoz Pinto and María Cleria Zamora. She married Luis Vicente Espinoza in Salt Lake City, Utah and their marriage was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple on August 27, 1965. They are parents of Luis and Kerina.

Cleria made her home in Provo, Utah for the past 40 years. She also lived in California, Arizona, and Oregon. She graduated as an Executive Secretary from the Instituto Commerical No. 3 in 1962. She earned the equivalent of a Masters degree in Information and Document Management. Cleria worked for LAN Chile Airlines, LDS Seminary and Institutes, Worldwide Corporation, and the Ezra Taft Benson Agriculture and Food Institute—Brigham Young University. After her liver transplant in 1994, she returned to work as a Translator and Editor for the Benson Institute until her retirement in 2007.

Cleria was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, joining the Church in Santiago, Chile in 1962. She served dutifully in several callings, including Relief Society President, a teacher in several organizations, Visiting Teacher, and her favorite and last calling, Transcriber to her husband, who serves as a Patriarch. She was an avid BYU football and Utah Jazz fan. She could not be interrupted while watching her games. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She was a fabulous cook, a lover of adventures, crazy about her grandchildren and lastly, she loved holding hands and dancing in the kitchen with her “eternal boyfriend”.

Survived by: Luis V. Espinoza, Luis (Alicia Susana) Espinoza, Kerina E. Espinoza, Alejandra Espinoza, Galina Espinoza, Luis Genaro Espinoza, Jessica Bianca Espinoza, Vincent Cameron Espinoza, Cristian K. Espinoza, Brisa T. Espinoza. Gladys M. Muñoz (Pasadena, CA), Josefina (Maurice) Abib (Pasadena, CA), Humberto (Marcela) Muñoz Z. (Santiago, Chile). Eliana E. Espinoza and a large extended family.

Preceded in death by: Humberto Muñoz Pinto (Father), María Cleria Zamora (Mother), Manuela del Carmen Moya (Sister), Berta del Carmen Narvaez (Sister).

Service will be held Saturday, November 30, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. at the Grandview 20th Ward, 1081 West 1060 North, Provo, UT 84604. Interment will be at the Provo City Cemetery.

On behalf of Cleria, the Espinoza family would like to express their deepest appreciation to all those involved in her care during the critical hours when she was at the Utah Valley Regional Medical Center, the Central Utah Clinic, and the Provo Rehabilitation and Nursing Center. With special thanks to the Provo City Fire & Rescue, Horizon Hospice Specialists, Dr. Thomas Dickinson, Dr. Terry Box and the Liver Transplant team at the University of Utah, Dr. Gerald Stephanz, Dr. Lawrence Nobuhara, Cory Miller, P.A., Dr. Larry Noble, Dr. Charles Dahl, Dr. Michael Pearce, Dr. Matthew Sperry, and Dr. James T. Dane.

Under the direction of Peni Malohifo'ou of Serenity Funeral Home Draper,

Utah

“ La familia Espinoza ocupa un lugar muy especial en mi corazón, siempre me trataron como si fuera familia. Recuerdo unos días antes de mi matrimonio Cleria Espinoza me dio el "talk" y compartió conmigo sus experiencias como mujer y como esposa. Nunca olvidare ese gesto tan especial. Siempre la llevare en mi corazón. Gracias por ser un gran ejemplo para mí.

Even as a little girl I remember the sweetness and soft spirit I felt when in her presence; my heartache is filled when in remembrance of what she so naturally and freely shared with others. Tio Lucho, Keri, Luchito y familia, mis oraciones estan con ustedes. What a blessing it is to feel her spirit and beauty live on!

“ We have fond memories of Cleria, as she supported her husband as the first President of the Chilean Association of Utah. She was by his side, a fundamental part of that early association. Her love and willingness to serve others was evident in everything she did. She was an example to others, keeping traditions alive and finding ways of helping those in need. Her example and spirit of service, together with her husband, has been transferred to her children, as they are strong, kind people – serving in many ways throughout the world.

“ Perder a alguien de la familia siempre es doloroso, sobretodo si ha sido una mujer tan dedicada a su familia y a las cosas de Dios como Cleria lo fue. Le doy mi más sentido pésame a la familia. El vacío que queda es muy grande y no se olvida, pero estoy segura que el amor del Salvador consolará sus corazones y les ayudará a sobreponerse ante este dolor y nuevo desafío.

“ Querido Lucho, Luchito , Kerina, y familia
La distancia no es obstáculo para hacerles llegar, nuestro mas profundos sentimientos de congoja y cariños por la partida de CLERIA. Las grandes personas dejan huellas imborrables y CLERIA es una de ellas, ya que a pesar de su salud siempre estuvo atenta para ayudar a los desvalidos y necesitados. Estén orgullosos de lo que recibieron y que este momento de dolor se convierta en un compromiso de continuar adelante en base a su espíritu y al reconocimientos de los que gozamos de atención y oraciones para salir adelante.
