

Clinton Ray Miller

March 14, 1922 - July 24, 2013

Clinton Ray Miller passed from this life with the love of his family on July 24, 2013. Clinton will be remembered for his powerful influence of truth, and his unyielding commitment to family, church, and health freedom. He joined the throngs of great pioneers on Pioneer Day.

Born on March 14, 1922 in Preston, Idaho, to Raymond Nephi and Clarice Stockdale Miller.

Clinton grew up working in the family business, the Miller Honey Company. Diligent hard work and perseverance were his trademarks. He graduated from East High and the University of Utah.

Married his eternal sweetheart, Bonnie Jean Kent, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple on Oct. 13, 1944. He treasured Bonnie, and has missed her deeply since her passing in 2006.

During WWII, Clinton served as a Pilot of a B-17 Bomber. He worked as an English Teacher and Top Sales Rep for Utah Woolen Mills in Alaska. He founded Clinton's Wheat Shop, and represented the National Health Federation as legislative advocate, defending our health freedoms from 1962 through 1990. His work in this field was pivotal and enduring. He labored in this cause through his 90th year. Above all, Clinton was dedicated to his wife and family. A faithful Latter-Day Saint, Clinton served in many leadership positions and shared the Gospel of Jesus Christ with everyone he met. He devoted the last three years of his life to full-time family temple work in the St. George Temple.

Survived by six children: Kent, Raymond, Daniel (Sondi), Joy, Michael (Shauna), Kathleen (Dave); 18 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by Bonnie, parents, two sisters, two brothers, and two grandsons.

A Graveside Service will be held Sat., July 27 at 1:30 p.m. at the SLC Cemetery. A Memorial Service will follow at the LDS Chapel; 1830 E. 6400 S. SLC 84121. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the LDS Perpetual Education Fund or LDS Missionary Fund.
