Curtis J. Muramoto

1952 ~ 2016

Curtis J. Muramoto, 64, of West Valley City, Utah, passed away peacefully at his home on Friday, November 25, 2016.

Born June 1, 1952 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Jack and Kate Muramoto. Curtis graduated from Granger High School in 1970 where he was an all-star athlete in football, baseball, and wrestling. He later became an influential coach in the community where he thrived in coaching, particularly with his sons. Curtis loved spending time with his family, friends, and grandchildren.

He took pride in teaching his family about respect and the value of hard work, which is evident by the compliments given to his sons and grandchildren.

Curtis has always been a kind, generous, loving, and extremely humble man throughout his life. He had the biggest heart and warmest smile, which will continue to be felt by everyone. He was an active member of the LDS Church where he served as Bishop.

Curtis is survived by his childhood sweetheart and eternal companion, Janet of 44 years. He is also survived by his sons: Jace (Leslee), Josh, Jonas (Christy), Brett, Brad (Missy); six siblings: Allison Muramoto, Gary Muramoto, Mark (Jamie) Muramoto, Pam (Von) Marshall, Becky (Ron) Klepper, Jackie (Ray) Holt; 13 grandchildren. Preceded in death by his parents; brother, Eric (Nancy) Muramoto; daughter-in-law, Lacie.

A viewing will be held Thursday, December 1, 2016, from 6-8 p.m. at the LDS Church House located on 7035 Loch Ness Ave., West Valley City, Utah. Funeral services will be held at the same LDS Church House on Friday, December 2, 2016, at 11 a.m. with a viewing starting at 10 a.m. Interment at Valley View Memorial Park.
