“ Paul and family. I want to let you know that I am sorry for your loss. I was told of both of your losses by Amy Phillips. It is a tough time right now, but you will be blessed. You will be with them at some future time. Signed Judy Reep

“ Oh Tinkerbell, how saddened I was to hear you had left us... I went to school with Renee.. we rode the same school bus and lived in the same community... I don't think I can remember a single negative thought about Renee... She, my cousin, Vicky, and little sister, Christy, were closer in age and very dear friends.. My memories of Renee are that one might have of a friend's little sister. I was in Sam's yesterday, when I opened up my phone to message my sister about an item I was looking for... the first thing that popped up was the picture of Renee and the post announcing she had earned her wings. I think the entire aisle heard me gasp... Many nodded and smiled as they noticed the tears in my eyes... I was shocked and I was heartbroken.. I will always remember Renee as a part of my "real" life... all those long many years ago... The sky is shining a bit brighter tonight and I just bet if I looked close enough I could find a beautiful fairy angel trying out her wings... My heartfelt condolences to the family...
