

David Jack Allison

January 10, 1982 - August 20, 2021

On August 20, 2021, David Jack Allison, loving husband, son, brother and friend passed away at the age of 39.

David was born on January 10, 1982 in Delta, Utah to Lisa Brunner and Phillip Allison. He attended both East High and West High before receiving his high school diploma from Granite School District. He worked at many jobs over the years but he was most proud of his time with ICC-Instrument Control Company as a panel technician.

David was an example of survival. He endured many trials and trauma as a young child and came out a fighter, and had many small victories throughout his life that not everyone was able to see. He was a hard worker and enjoyed helping his family and friends. Whether it be building a new porch, working on the family cabin or gardening with his mother-in-law, he was always happy to lend a helping hand. He was generous with his time, possessions and love. David's spirit and personality drew people in and he made friends easily. He had so much love to give to those around him, and would do whatever he could to make others happy.

David married his true sweetheart, Paige Butters-Allison on September 11, 2020. Paige made him a better man and helped him begin to turn his life around. He was proud of all that he accomplished in the short time they had together. He will be remembered for his blue eyes, beautiful smile, contagious laugh and his kindness.

David was preceded in death by his father, Phillip Allison and many loved ones who were waiting for his arrival. He is survived by his sweet wife Paige Butters-Allison, his parents Pete and Kay Robinson, grandmother Audrey Mayoh, biological mother Lisa Sipe, sisters Chris (John) Jongejan, Lynette (Layne) Hilton, Shelley (Spencer) Koehler, Deb (Myles) Howard, April Allison and many other beloved family members and friends.

“ It's almost been a year since you passed Dave. There isn't a day that goes by where I don't think of you. I pray you're at peace and that you know how much I love you. I'm so sorry that I didn't listen and reach out to you when I should have. Please forgive me. I love and miss you. You'll forever be my little brother. I'll see you on the other side...when the time is right.

“ The happiness and growth I was able to watch in David over the years was a gift. Thank you for sharing your hopes and dreams with us. Thank you for scaring me when I didn't realize you were sleeping while waiting for your sessions. Thank you for making us laugh and reminding me of the gift of love. Most of all Thank you for loving Paige...

“ David, you were my big brother. i looked up to you for so many reasons. you faced struggles and pain but always came out better on the otherside. you meant the world to me. i am very thankful that you were able to meet your neice and have that special time with her. i still have video of that and always will cherrish that memory. you meant the world to me and still do and always will. i know your looking down on us and keeping watch. you are now and always will be my guardian angel. i miss you so much but am relieved that you are no longer in pain. i will always carry you in my heart.

“ David - you and your infectious smile will be missed at the office. You lit up the room and always brought a smile (and eye roll) to my face. I miss bringing you my food and listening to you ramble about that damn podcast..... you will be proud to know I started listening to it! I will miss you and we will look after Paige. Love you both ❤️

David was like my son, my best friend, my confidant and my caretaker. He was always there no matter what. I see him poking his head in my bedroom door asking me if there was anything I needed before he went to bed. Truly one of the more thoughtful, kind and gracious people I've ever met in my seventy years on this earth. His service yesterday was a shock somehow. I think I still expect him to come home, like hes been on a trip somewhere or something. Now fact has hit home and I miss him like the sun. David was a one in a million type of man. We wont see anyone like him again in our lives. Genuine to a fault. Good heart, good natured, and just basically good. Kind of thought and habit, generous and forgiving, loving and patient was our David. We will all be better human beings gor having known him. I will miss you forever, my sweet sweet boy.

“ I didn't know David really well but I do remember I got the chance to go on a trip to Idaho and back to Utah with him. He was great company and we had a nice conversation about life and other general interests. He was always kind and friendly around me. I'm sad I never got the chance to spend more time with him. Life is too short and in David's case shorter than expected. Miss ya David.
