

David Reid Brown

December 14, 1960 - September 22, 2025

David Reid Brown, 64, died Monday, September 22, 2025. David was born on December 14, 1960, to Mary Reid and John Francis Brown in Queens, New York. He attended La Salle Military Academy. He enjoyed playing football during his high school years.

His diverse roles marked David's professional journey. He began his career as a taxi driver in New York, a role he held for several years. Approximately thirty years ago, he made a significant move to Utah. There, he ventured into entrepreneurship, owning a successful trucking company. His career also included service roles at Deseret Industries and the CCS Soup Kitchen.

On a memorable day, November 10, 2011, at the Weigand Center in Salt Lake City, Utah, David tied the knot with Debra L. Howland, marking the beginning of a new chapter in his life.

He is survived by his loving wife, Debra, his brother Kevin (Tammy) Brown, and his stepchildren, Christina (Josh) Howland, Alisha (Hawk AKA Michael) Munsell, and Wayne Howland. He also leaves behind his nieces, Reid and Justine Brown, and step-grandchildren, Ronnie and Que Ta.
