

David Lloyd Fisher

April 21, 1977 - February 16, 2025

David Lloyd Fisher, 47, of North Ogden, Utah, passed away suddenly in his home on February 16th, 2025. Born on April 21st, 1977 in Portland, Oregon, to Lloyd Dean Fisher and Eileen Leora Fisher, David grew up in a little town named Boring, Oregon and graduated from Barlow High School in 1995.

After High School, David attended Mt. Hood Community College and worked at a gas station until he received his LDS mission calling. At 19 years old in 1996, David was called to serve the New Zealand and Cook Islands mission where he learned Cook Island Mauri and was able to meet with the heads of state from other island nations arriving in the Cook Islands. It was a great honor for David to meet each arriving dignitary and offer a prayer on their behalf. David and his mission companion flew to many islands to teach and baptize new members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. David had the opportunity to teach the gospel in their native language over the radio many times. He loved this mission and the people he met along the way. David often spoke fondly of the memories and stories he accumulated from his mission and kept all of the gifts and souvenirs he received in his office where he could reminisce. He always jumped at the opportunity to talk about it all.

In 1999, David attended BYU Hawaii after returning home from his mission, where he met his soon-to-be wife, Elenoa Tiare Naeata. David and Elenoa were married on July 1st, 2000 in the Portland temple. They had four children together; Ailine Fisher, Kawika Fisher, Ne'eulani Fisher, and Meliame Fisher. David graduated from BYU Hawaii Summa Cum Laude in December of 2001, then moved his family to Texas to begin Law School in 2003. He then graduated from Texas Westleyn University School of Law in 2006 with his Doctorate degree, moved his family to Utah, and received the Utah Bar Award.

David had many hobbies that included writing poetry, collecting RC cars and drones, shooting guns at the range, and collecting the masks and memorabilia from the Halloween movie franchises. David was fluent in Cook Island Mauri and Tongan and had an extensive vocabulary in German. He wrote and published a book in 2012 called "Only Conservatives Are In Their Right Minds". He was passionate about our country's constitution and laws.

David was happiest when he was with his children. He always wanted to be around them to create life-long memories of family traditions, fun times, and show them selfless love. David focused on the magic of holidays like Easter, the Fourth of July, Halloween, and Christmas. He liked to store all of the Halloween decorations in his office because of how much he loved the holiday. David loved making Christmas the most magical event of the year and would save for months to get his children everything they could ever want. He would dress up as Santa Claus on Christmas Eve and visit his children to tell the story of "Teach the Children". It was so important to David to teach his children about the meaning of Christmas and to always hold that magic in their hearts no matter how old they get.

David was a selfless, intelligent, articulate, passionate, kind, and loyal man who put his family and children first above all things. He lived for his children. He loved them with every fiber of his being. David was a son, a brother, a husband, and most importantly to him, a father.

He is survived by his wife, Elenoa Fisher; His children, Ailine (Line) Fisher, Kawika (Leka) Fisher, Ne'eulani (Losa) Fisher, Meliame (Leah) Fisher; His siblings, Tamra Gunderson, Jenifer Gunderson, Juliann Newton, Kimberly Delatorre, Scott Fisher, Shaun Fisher; His parents, Lloyd Fisher and Eileen Fisher.

Funeral services will be held on March 10th, 2025, at 10:00 AM, at the Pleasant View 14th Ward LDS Church, 3035 N 1325 W, Pleasant View, UT 84414.

“Dave was one of my favorite people from my time at BYUH. We had classes together and worked on group projects together. He made every situation more enjoyable. I worked as a tour guide at the PCC, and he worked at Photopoly and was usually stationed at the Tongan village. When I would bring my group to the Tongan performance, we would find each other and spend the next half hour insulting each other and laughing, interrupted only by him having to go on stage and take pictures. It would usually start with something like, "Heath I saw your dad out there" and he would point to the goofiest looking man in the crowd. We only maintained sporadic contact since. I frequently told my son about Dave and the fun we had. He will be greatly missed. Noa, you and the kids will be in my prayers. May you feel his presence watching over you and the arms of our Heavenly Father and Jesus wrapped around you, embracing and sustaining you through the difficult moments.

“What a beautiful service for a very special person!

I didn't know Dave as well as I would've liked, but I knew him well enough to know that he was an excellent father, a great husband, and all around a good man! I know he will be missed by all those who knew and loved him. I know also that we will all see him again in the eternities because of the great plan of a loving God and the atonement of our merciful Savior, Jesus Christ.

Until that time, I express my deepest condolences to his bereaved wife and his beloved children, as well as to the rest of his family. May you find consolation in your grief and know that Dave is now happy and at peace!

“ Although I did not have the honor of knowing him personally,
I wish all the strength and peace to the family.
May the memories of your loved one bring comfort,
and may his spirit live on in all of you.

Haere Rā, E Te Poutokomanawa

*Kua hinga te tōtara i te wao nui a Tāne,
Kua ngaro te poutokomanawa o te whānau.
I raro i tō maru, i tipu, i rea mātou,
Nāu i whakakaha, nāu i manaaki.*

*Ko tō aroha he awa e kore e mimiti,
Ko tō māramatanga he ahi kā e kore e tineia.
I te ao, i te pō, kei roto koe i ō mātou manawa,
E kore rawa koe e warewaretia.*

*Haere rā, e te matua kaha,
Rere ki ngā ringa o ō tūpuna,
Moe mai, moe mai, moe mai rā,
I roto i te rangimārie.*

“ David you are one of my oldest friends. I admired your confidence as a young man and your perseverance as an adult. I am grateful for all the calls and texts we shared these past years. I always wished we could have met in person as men but I love your heart, your passion for your family and your tenacity to keep going. Love you brother.
