Dean Charles Bullock

Dean Charles Bullock, 78 died Saturday, June 4th at the Avalon Care Center.

Dean was born July 21st, 1943, in Logan, Utah to William Woodrow and Eleanor Scoville Bullock.

In 1962, Dean enlisted in the Navy. When he was asked about it, he would laugh and say, "I could tell you some stories."

He had the opportunity to work for his father for several years; then he worked for National Semi-Conductor. He finished up his career at UTA as a bus driver.

Dean loved the regular riders on his bus. He often talked about them and their lives. He loved to tell stories, with a lot of details. He was a very intelligent man and he enjoyed talking about several different subjects.

Dean is survived by his wife Debbie, 12 children, 4 step children, 53 grandchildren, and 23 great grandchildren

He was preceded in death by one daughter, and three grandchildren
