

Debra Lee Brown

July 12, 1954 - August 2, 2025

Debra Lee Brown passed away in the early hours of August 2nd. She was born July 12, 1954 in Ogden UT and adopted to loving parents Leland and Lois Brown.

In 1982, Debby welcomed her first child, Camy Lee; and her second, TJ in 1985 with then husband Timothy Thompson. While Debby wasn't particularly lucky in love, anyone who knew her can tell you her true love was her children. Debby always cherished being a mother, even through the difficult times.

In 1995, Debby was diagnosed with Relapsing and Remitting progressive Multiple Sclerosis. The disease was fierce, but she was strong, she was determined and she was loved. Through family, humility, friendships, community and the strongest display of will power we'd ever seen...she never, ever gave up.

Debby was also an active member of the LDS church and enjoyed serving in many church callings, attending the temple with her mother, and general conference sessions.

Debby's smile was infectious and she made many friends over the years. Her family would like to thank everyone for loving and supporting her. Special

'thank you' to the staff at Monument Heath Taylorsville both past and present and the staff of Quality Home Health and Hospice.

She is survived by her four siblings, Rebecca (Delwyn) Roper, Kendall (Stacie) and Randall Brown and Cathy York. Her children; Camy (Denyce) Thompson and T.J (Parker) Thompson and 3 grandchildren (Jasper, Harley and Dylan).

Proceeded in death by her parents Leland and Lois, grandfather Charles Schumacher and many others we're sure she is enjoying much deserved time with.

The Viewing will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. on Saturday, Aug 9, 2025 at Serenity Funeral Home, 13863 S 2700 W, Bluffdale, Utah. The Funeral will begin at 11:00 a.m. at the same location.

“ Debby was my Mother-in-law for 20+ years. While life changes and she was no longer my Mother-in-law at time of death she was still a huge part of my heart and life. She was very loved and will be truly missed by all who knew her. I love you now and always Debby (Mommy). Rest in peace and enjoy your reunion with your parents.

“ I am Debbys

I have many memories of Deb and myself playing together all the time. My mom and her mom made draperies together. We love picking up the pins with those magnets that were shaped like horseshoes. We both have the same diagnosis of MS. There are times we talked about on the phone. She's always upbeat and happy. She talked about her children so much. My heart goes out to you Cam and TJ. Yes she did love you very much. Thank you for posting this obituary. I know it's very hard to do. My prayers and thoughts are with you this time. Paula Garfield

I have known Debbie for almost 55 years. She was very nice to me because I was new to the school. She was super fun, wasn't afraid to do anything. She was the official." driving Miss Daisy." I was able to spend quite a bit of time with Debby and we were able to talk about the church, God, and heaven -along, with grandkids. I was super happy when TJ brought her to our 50th class reunion.

I know that Debby is running around somewhere in heaven And reaching for this guy without any wheelchair to get in her way. I have a better life because I knew Debby. I am so very sorry that I will be gone at the funeral. know I loved her very much.

I don't remember ever not knowing our beloved Debby! We grew up together, went to school together, hung out together, shared a locker and a lot of good food and times together. She introduced me to my husband, Kurt, when we raided KNAK Radio in the early hours of his Midnight to 6 shift. She was fun, funny and drove my 1960 Rambler car which was named Daisy like a spunky, untamed teenager. Thankfully, Daisy couldn't go faster than 30 mph. She drove her wheelchair the same way, leaving me in the dust while I tried to keep up with her on foot in halls of her care facility. She rarely minced words with me and I found her to be hilarious! Her antics still make laugh and I have gotten a lot of mileage from our stories. We love you Debby and always will. Just a quick story. I met her sister Cathy before Debby did. Cathy was a friend of a friend and we ran into Cathy by chance at a restaurant. I immediately flashed on Debby when we met and thought wouldn't it be weird if Cathy was actually her sister. Then I thought- no way - Becky was Debby's sister. Years later, when Debby discovered that she had another sister we pieced it together. What a fun surprise! Later, I learned my neighbor sang with Cathy in a choir together. What a small world in which we live! Debby, you were a force and I am grateful that God put us into each other's lives!
