

Debra Ann Land

September 9, 1960 - March 9, 2015

Beloved wife, daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend, Debra Ann Mace Land, passed away on March 9, 2015, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was born on September 9, 1960 in Craig, Colorado to Lee F. Mace and Shirley A. Maricle. Debra's family moved to Vernal, Utah shortly after Debra was born. She attended Uintah High School and graduated in 1978. She then attended Utah State University which is where she met and fell in love with Wesley W. Land. They were married on August 4, 1979 in the Logan Utah LDS Temple. After graduating from Utah State University, Debra lovingly taught kindergarten and preschool at Morningside School, in Logan, for 19 years. She was a devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and served in many callings to include primary, young womens, and relief society. Debra loved her savior Jesus Christ and had a strong testimony of him. She loved sewing and quilting and never missed an opportunity to go to a quilt store. Debra's top priority was her family. She loved being surrounded by and spending time with her family. Debra loved making friends and never missed an opportunity to share herself with others. We will all miss her greatly.

Debra is survived by her husband Wesley, her children Krista Slotto, Calley Auman, Alison Daybell, their spouses James Slotto, Aaron Auman, Paul Daybell, three grandchildren Lance and Aidan Auman, and William Daybell, her mother Shirley Mace, and her brothers Perry Mace, Charles Mace. “ Dear Wes,

Our hearts wept with yours when we read of your great loss ... mothers and eternal companions are so precious.

We are chagrined that we didn't know where you are now living. Doug so enjoyed the time spent getting to know you while working together.

May it help in some small way to know how very much others truly empathize and care.

Hope to see you on Tuesday.

Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with you.

*Love,
Doug and Printha Sorenson*
