Dad I never have seen people who hated me and my family so bad that they be on street demonstrating. What wicked bunch..I wish I was a Distiple of Christ to day we would be treated better.

“ I am saddened by the loss of my Uncle Dennis. His devotion to my Aunt Sherry was beyond any words I can share. His care of her truly was in sickness and in health. As MS ravaged her body and his care of her became full time, recall one evening at dinner at the home of my parents where he lovingly looked over at us and so simply stated that “what happens to one of us, happens to both of us.” Dennis truly lived the values of marriage and I will miss him.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Dennis briefly about 35 years ago and have always remembered his devotion to his wife.

*I was so sad when I saw Dennis's obituary today. I am a childhood friend of Dennis and his family and friends into adulthood. We spent lots of time together as children, our families were bonded as more than friends. We had many dinners together with our two families. My husband and I are sending our condolences to you and please know that others care and we so wish we could attend his service. We will be thinking of you and have you in our hearts.
