“ Don and I met at West High School, we were together for about 15 years on and off, divorced in 87. We shared two kids Joshua and Camille. He was a Badd-Ass in football and graduated to go on to Join the Utah National Guard, then the Union to be a carpenter. He struggled most of his life with drugs and alcohol. He is free from all that now, may God rest his soul and bring him peace. His children loved him and may their hearts be healed, and remember the good memories of him. My Condolences to all his family, sister Lisa, friends and his German Shepherd Harley. Sincerely Robin
