

Donna Rae Galloway

March 7, 1953 - January 27, 2018

Donna Rae Galloway, 64, passed away on Jan 27, 2018 in West Jordan, Utah after a valiant battle with colon cancer. She was born March 7, 1953, in Andalusia, Alabama to David Moroni Smith and Altha Lucille Wiker. She was married to Chad Richardson Galloway in Elko, Nevada on April 6, 1974 which was later solemnized in the Jordan River Temple.

She was a courageous fighter, an inspiration to her children, a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She was always happy and had an infectious laugh that will be missed by many. A trip to the store was never brief as she could talk for hours to anyone and made friends with everyone she met. Her outstretched arms were always waiting to give someone a hug to make their day a bit better. She fought bravely, making having cancer look easy. No matter how sick she was she stayed positive. Most did not know how sick she truly was because she never complained. Her heroic upbeat attitude kept her going and kept others going. She was not cancer, but what her having cancer taught us will go on forever. Every day may not be a good day, but there is something good in every day.

Survived by husband Chad; children Alana, Angelina (Lance), and Adam; grandchildren Alexis, Bryson, Makenzie, Victoria, and Clinton John; brothers Randall (Jennifer) and Ron (Patricia); and sisters Sandra (Steve) and Phyllis (Todd).

Proceeded in death by parents David Moroni Smith and Altha Lucille Wiker (George Wiker)

Service will be held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints Chapel located at 6567 South Wakefield Way, 6035 West, West Valley City, Utah 84118, on Friday February 2, 2018 at 11:00am and a viewing will be held on Thursday February 1, 2018 6:00-8:00 pm and before the service from 9:00am-10:45am at the chapel. .A short Graveside service will be held following the funeral at Memorial Mountain View Mortuary and Cemetery 3115 East 7800 South Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121.

The family would like to thank all friends and family for all the support they have shown us, as well as, Intermountain Hospice for the care, support, and professionalism they showed mom during her struggle with colon cancer.

“ I just loved Aunt Donna's laugh. She was also so sweet and lovable. I loved her hugs and kisses. She was always at Grandma's house when we would come up to visit and that means so much to be. She is surely missed. I love you, Aunt Donna!

“ I loved when Angelina would babysit me at Donna and Chef's house when I was little. Donna always had a big loving hug for me and would humor me while I talked her ear off. There was so much love and comfort radiating from her always. Everything I remember is wonderful as she was an amazing woman. I'm so so sorry to the family for the loss of your sweet wife, mommy, and grandma. Cancer sucks and my heart is with you all in your time of grief & always.

“ We grew up in an awesome neighborhood where all of the moms were moms to all of us kids. We were able to run around and get in trouble together and not be scared because we knew that if anything bad were to happen anyone of our "Moms" would be there to help. Donna was one of those Moms. She will be missed. Chad, Alana, Angelina, and Adam, I pray you are able to find some peace and comfort in the days ahead.

“ What Can I say about my Mom, she was amazing person with a heart of gold. Remember going to Star Wars Celebration VI with her and my niece and nephew for the day. Since it was Star Wars she wanted to wear one of my shirts. So while she was in line waiting for a panel for us, while Lexxi and I were in another line for a panel, we wanted to attend both and we were able to since my mom saved our spots. She ended up winning an exclusive print by one of the artist there at the convention. I guess the guy walking around asking questions to people in line. Came up to her ask her who was that on her shirt. This shirt had like 6 people on it. But she answer correctly, Boba Fett. I was stunned to hear that she won and knew who that was. My mom knows Star Wars, she loved the first one, the original, Star Wars Episode IV: A New Hope. She could always with me. Outside the main people didn't think she know him. Love you Mom, we will miss you. until we meet again.
