In Memory Of.....

Doris R Glenday

With love and gratitude.....

Doris Albina (Rigby) Glenday, 93, after a lengthy illness, entered into eternal peace the night of July 23, 2014 at home in Salt Lake City, Utah with family and friends by her side.

Doris was born January 13, 1921 in Fall River, Massachusetts, daughter of the late Albina and William Rigby. After moving to New Jersey, she married Frank M. Glenday and they resided in Hasbrouck Heights, New Jersey where she was a homemaker and active member of the Bible Baptist Church. She was an talented artist and poet and continued her artwork and compositions until last year.

Doris is survived by her daughter, Carol Lynn Glenday; two married grandchildren, Debra Lynne Hafner (David) and Aaron Glen Schoenberg (Lindsey); three great-grandsons, David Van Hafner, Colton Matthew Hafner and Wolfgang Elias Schoenberg; four siblings, Warren Rigby, William Rigby (Mildred), Veronica Anger and Barbara Connell (Raymond); brother-in-law, Raymond Wilbur; many nieces and nephews.

Doris was predeceased by her husband, Frank M Glenday; her son, David B Glenday; a brother, Norman Rigby (Alice); three sisters, Ethel Porter (Thomas), Florence Rigby and Evelyn Wilbur; sister-in-law, Ann Rigby; brother-in-law, Edward Anger.

A graveside service will be at a later date in Lyndhurst, New Jersey at Hillside Cemetery where she will be interred with her husband and family members. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to everyone from Hearts for Hospice for their constant care, support and love to all of us and for making Mom's transition comfortable and peaceful and also to our family friend, Elaine Christensen for her kindness and care as Mom's caregiver since last October. Contributions may be made in memory of Doris R Glenday to The John A.
