

Edith Pamela Heren

May 13, 1943 - February 1, 2021

Edith Pamela Heren, 77, of Draper, passed away peacefully under the loving care of Cascades at Riverwalk Hospice Care Center. Edith “Pam” or “Pim” Was born in May 13, 1943 in Louisville, KY. She was an avid cook, homemaker and loved her family and friends dearly. She was a dedicated mom, daughter, sister and friend. In her younger years, you’d find Pam on the tennis courts playing a competitive game of singles or doubles or dancing with her children to the latest Elvis Presley or Mac Davis songs. She had an infectious love for life. She enjoyed serving her latest recipes and hosting weekly canasta games with her friends. Her joyous laughter and heartfelt kindness will be missed by all of us. Pam is preceded in death by her parents Kenneth Henry Gant, Mildred Patton Heren, Hubert G. Heren, and her brother Daniel Edmond Heren. She is survived by her son James Troy Minks, daughter Susan Kathryn Knollenberg, Son-in-law Brad Knollenberg and three grandchildren. Due to COVID-19, The family has opted for a private burial at the Salt Lake City Cemetery, Thursday, February 11, 2021 @11:00 am.
