

Eric Price Clark

April 1, 1963 - July 18, 2017

Eric Price Clark was born April 1, 1963 in Cedar City, UT to parents Saunders Eric Clark and Sue Mae Clark. Eric was the middle child; he had two sisters Kathleen Clark and Barbara Clark.

His family moved to Moapa Valley where he enjoyed swimming, fishing, shooting, hunting, and hanging out with his best friend Randy Henrie.

When Eric was younger, he enjoyed going to Cedar Mountain and to the Henrie Ranch. He enjoyed everything outdoors.

Eric graduated from Moapa Valley high school in 1981, moved to Cedar City, UT with his father, and attended Welding School.

Eric was a wonderful and devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend. Eric was preceded in death by his mother Sue Mae Rico, his sister Barbara Sue Clark, and his father Saunders Eric Clark.

“ it has been nearly 6 years since you walked through the veil. I am so sorry I wasn't there, that you died alone. I miss you more than anyone will ever know. I wonder what you are doing in Heaven, is my dad teaching you. I wish you would come get me. My mom recently died and it would be a blessing for our kids if I died. Alyssa is such a blessing to me. She has a nose ring but has such a big heart. James gets stressed out and yells at me and gets irritated with me. Sara know allows me to text. Everything has to be there way, their rules. I am slow to trust. They say the same about me. What did I do that was so terrible. I want to move far from eveyone and die. That is my gift to them. I have failed at our marriage and failed as a mom. Everything I do I fail. I miss you. Can't wait to be with you again, if you even want me. All of my love.

“ Rick I think about you daily and wish you were here. Everything I do I think of you and wish that you were here so that I could love you the way I know now. I think of you when I see anything fishing or hunting. I found the duck calls and tried to call them in just like you taught me. Just wish I could make up for the hard times that we had and show you the way to treat a loving husband that you were. I love you so much. I miss you every day.
