

Evelyn Verna Redwine Moon

August 14, 1940 - August 14, 2015

Evelyn Redwine Moon passed away suddenly on August 14, 2015 in Payson, Utah after a brief illness. It was her 75th birthday. She was born in Mesa, Arizona and raised in Petrolia, Texas by her mother, Verna Drorbaugh Redwine Linton and her stepfather Jack Linton. She was married to the late Robert Moon, also of Petrolia, Texas.

Evelyn and Bob lived all over the country, from Texas to Pennsylvania. She trained as a cosmetologist but also worked as a sales associate. Her favorite job was working at Bloomingdales, but in her heart she really loved being homemaker. She was good at many crafts, including sewing, painting, and gardening and loved to cook. Evelyn was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Evelyn is survived by her two daughters, Cindy (Randall) Bohn and Amanda Moon, grandchildren Ellen, Sarah, Will, and Xander, her sister Silvia (David) Webb, her brother Buddy Linton, nephews Todd and Daniel Webb and their families, nieces Shea Johns and Kalie Linton and their families.

She was preceded in death by her father, James Redwine, her mother Verna Linton, her stepfather Jack Linton, and her husband, Bob Moon.

A graveside service will be held at the Payson City Cemetery on Tuesday August 18 at 4pm. Friends are invited to share memories and condolences at www.serenityfhs.com.
