Fifita graduated from Capuchino Highschool in 2022. Fifita also attended Pakilau middle school in Vaini and Liahona Middle school during her short stay in Tonga. Fifita grew up in San Bruno California and she lived in Missouri and Portland Oregon where she worked for Alaska Airlines at the Mcghee Portland Airport. She was embraced by her Mcghee family. They described Fifita as very helpful, always helping her co-workers with their flights even if it meant missing her lunch breaks. It is incredibly humbling to see the amount of love extended to Fifita's family from all her co-workers from Mcgee Air Services/Alaska Airlines.

Fifita was very loving, kind and gentle. Her favorite colors are Purple and Pink. She loved her Korean foods, her tiktoks with her friends and nieces.

Fifita lived a very short life but her impact touched a multitude of lives. This is evident in the outpour of love and support from so many. Fifita legacy is best described in a famous quote by Maya Angelou "Your legacy is every life you've ever touched."

Fifita has taught us that it's not about how long you have been around. But more about how helpful your existence has been.

Fifita was preceded in death by her grandparents Toetuu Pauni and Tevita Naulu, Uikelotu Fungalei and Siale Tukuafu, Aisea Mo'unga, Manatu Fungalei Dudley, Marietta Bell, John Field and her first cousin Seini Vinolia Maumau Mafi. What a bittersweet reunion in Heaven.
