

Francis(Frank) Charles Orges

July 29, 1952 - September 24, 2023

Francis (Frank) Charles Orges, 71, passed away on September 24, 2023, at Sagewood at Daybreak in South Jordan, Utah. He was born on July 29, 1952, in Cleveland, Ohio to Frank Orges and Nada Orges (Orbechik).

Frank proudly served in the Army for two years, a time during which he was stationed in Germany. His adventurous spirit and dedication to his profession took him to various places, living in San Francisco, Ohio, Riverton Utah, Dallas Texas, and Aspen Colorado. For a significant 25 years, he worked diligently at American Airlines. A man of passion and zest for life, Frank loved to fly fish and ski. His love for travel was evident in his journeys, notably traveling to New England to capture the breathtaking beauty of the changing leaves in the fall. One of his cherished destinations was the ski resort in Zermatt, where he could start in Switzerland and end in Italy, embracing the beauty of both countries.

Survived by: His child, Hunter Orges, and siblings Debbie Prokay, Brian Orges, Charlotte Orges, and Tom Orges.

Preceded in death by: His parents, Frank Orges and Nada Orges, as well as siblings Kevin Orges and Roger Orges.

A heartfelt thank you to Sagewood at Daybreak, Jodie, Dennis Jentoft, Robert

Thompson, and all of his cherished friends who stood by him through thick and thin.

Tribute Wall

“ Frank battled with parkinsons and it was a struggle. I thank God he reconnected with his son Hunter who took on his care and truly made his time here beautiful. ”

Deborah Prokay - October 08, 2023 at 08:03 PM

“ Francis(Frank) Charles Orges ”

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ Tiffanie lit a candle in memory of Francis(Frank) Charles Orges ”

Tiffanie - October 03, 2023 at 10:55 PM