“ Dear Pat & Gennie, Where to start...First of all, I'm heartbroken as there will never be another "Frankie". I am in love with this picture. Captures perfectly his whole self. Never anything but genuine and smiling. I have missed him at the ditch 3 times a day smiling and waving then hopping in his ugly gold truck. I had the privilege of being close to you and with that I met Frank's extended family. Always an adventure. I knew you had moved but I didn't know where. I've known what you were going through for a long time and wished that I could somehow let you know how much I care. I've been the caretaker for someone who suffered like he did and also know well how draining it is on you but you love them so you someway keep fighting the fight. I know he had the very best care anyone could wish for and I know he will continue to show his love and appreciation for you throughout eternity. I miss and love all of you and holding you in my heart everyday. Sending love and light-Glo

“ Oh Pat, my heart is broken. I know he has been "away" for a while now, but gone is so much harder to bear. I will miss his sweet smile and little wave. I will miss hearing you say "Come on Frankie, let's go". I have come to love the two of you so much. My thoughts, my heart, and my love are with you and Kensey.

“ Pat, my dear friend,
I was saddened to learn of Frank's death. You two have been such special people in Spanish Fork, and in my life. His health struggles the past couple of years were a challenge to him; but you were, and are, the best damn happy-helperton ever! Take care of you, now, okay. Much love and sympathy from me to you.
