

Fred Woodbridge Clifford

December 10, 1954 - June 15, 2013

Fred Woodbridge Clifford passed away on June 15, 2013 due to an aortic aneurism and related complications. He is survived by his devoted wife, Marian Goodrich Clifford, and their children, Benjamin and Nicole Clifford, Emily and Randall Maynes, Leilani and Frederico Maldonado, Christina and Jason Call, Anna and Kyle Baer, Kathryn and Johnathan Carrera, and Julia Clifford, and two grand children.

Fred was born in Geneseo, Illinois, to Jack and Shirley Clifford on December 10, 1954. He served his country in the Marine Corps as Honor Man in his platoon and expert marksman. While serving in Hawaii, Fred joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and soon after served a full-time mission where he met his wife. He then studied at Palmer College of Chiropractic and improved many lives doing what he loved over the next 25 years as a chiropractor. Fred has left behind a legacy of faith, friendliness, and Christlike kindness through adversity.

His funeral will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Wednesday, June 19 at 420 East Stokes Avenue in Draper, Utah. The viewing will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 A.M. in the same location. Donations may be made at cliffordfuneralfund.com.
