“ Growing up with Leroy has one of his best friends, Gordon was always puttering around the house on 11th east, fixing this and that, and when we got to be teens and into fixing our cars, Gordon was always there to make sure that the tools were put back in their proper place, offer advice on fixing the cars right, and doing his best to see that we “weren’t getting into trouble”. My memories of him were of being a loving father and family man, a devoted husband, and a good man all-around. His devotion to the church and to god was beyond reproach, and he could be hilariously funny when he wanted to be.

I have nothing but fond memories of him and his family, he lived a rich and full life and we will surely miss him. May he rest in peace in god’s loving arms, for he will be missed by the people who were fortunate enough to have met him, and by the ones whose lives he touched.

“ I will always remember Gordon as a happy person who loved to dance and sing. He made the annual Andersen camping fun with his camp songs and harmonica playing around the campfire. I loved him!
