

Grant DeLoss Williams

March 9, 1939 - October 30, 2020

Grant DeLoss Williams returned to his Father in Heaven the morning of October 30, 2020. He was born March 9, 1939, in Milford, Utah, to Lloyd and Della Williams. He married his sweetheart Sally Rae Hauser December 14, 1962, and they were sealed in the Manti Utah Temple.

Grant graduated with a Bachelors degree from USU and a Masters from BYU. He enjoyed his career teaching the gospel as a seminary teacher for 37 years in Utah, Idaho, and Tonga. His children considered themselves to be seminary brats because they moved every three years until they settled in Kaysville, Utah in 1982. As a young man, he served a full-time mission in the Western States Mission. Later, he and Sally served four missions together: Hawaii Hilo Mission where he worked with Young Single Adults and served in the Kona Hawaii Temple as a Sealer; Salt Lake Service Mission working with local youth and young adults to help them attend technical school; New Hampshire Manchester Mission where he served as the Director of the Joseph Smith Birthplace Memorial Visitors Center at the time of Joseph Smith's 200th birthday celebration; and the Washington D.C. Temple Mission where he served as a assistant recorder. He was always pleased that his sons and so many of his grandchildren followed his and Sally's example to serve full-time missions throughout the world. He served in many callings in the Church throughout his life including Bishop of the Filer Idaho 2nd Ward. He worked many years at the Bountiful Temple where he served as a Sealer until the temple was closed due to Covid-19. He was able to perform the temple marriage ceremonies for 11 of his grandchildren and had many fond memories serving the Lord in the temple.

“ *Dear Sally and family,
We were so saddened when Camilla called and told us of Grant's passing! We are terribly disappointed that we can't be to the services in person! He was a "gentle giant" and loved by all! We will be visiting you as soon as we can! We love your family and have so appreciated how sweet you have all been to Camilla and our family since she joined your family. We love our Curtis! May our Heavenly Father bless you all now and in the days ahead!

“ Grant and Sally were our neighbors and our kids love them like they were their own grandparents. The kids would sneak over to get a treat from their house. We miss them after we moved and were only able to visit them a couple times in the past few years. Grant always had a beautiful yard and was such a hard worker. He was such a sweet man. I just love them both dearly.

“ My Uncle Grant and Aunt Sally opened their home to us when we were teenagers. We lived with them when we worked at Lagoon for the summers. I just really appreciate the kindness he shared with me and my brothers as we stayed with them.
