“ I met Greg when I was 15, when he heard how old I was he said, "I'll be back in 3 years" and he was! The day after my 18th birthday he came to my work and said, "Happy Birthday" I couldn't believe he remembered my birth date! He asked me out to dinner, our first date. He was very sweet, funny and was always reading a Louie La'mour novel. He told me shortly before he died that he always thought I'd be a famous artist and would support him! He always made me laugh! Glad he never lost his sense of humor! We used to go out to Lytle Creek and shoot, went skiing and I love anything to do with the water! It's sad to hear he's gone too soon! Peace and prayers to his family.
