“ Hildegard, I called her Christine crochet the most precious baby bunting sets. I would take to Pregnancy Resource Centers in Utah and to the St. Vincent store for homeless. She was determined to give to her community and this was one way that she could do that. Christine was an excellent baker of all kinds of pastries. She was a faithful Catholic saying her prayers in the morning and was always ready and waiting to receive the Holy Eucharist each week. She was such a hospitable and loving friend to me, who has endeared herself forever into my heart. She WILL be missed 💕
