ISIKELLY LOA LONGANI

Isikelly Loa Longani, 37, passed away in the arms of his wife at home in South Salt Lake City, UT, on Tuesday, May 2, 2017. Loa, as he was most well known by, was born on May 9, 1979 at UCLA Hospital in Los Angeles, CA. He was the youngest son of Sione Naea Longani of Foui, Tongatapu, Tonga and Vela 'Aefehi Hakau Longani of 'Otea, Vava'u, Tonga. Loa found the love of his life in Mabel Harris Longani and they got married on April 19, 2003 in Salt Lake City, UT.

Loa attended school at Larch Elementary and Lennox Middle School in Inglewood, California. He then went on to graduate from Hawthorne High School in Hawthorne, CA; he was a proud Hawthorne High "Cougar." Loa was a member of his school marching band playing the drums and he played football until he was seriously injured, ending any hopes of playing sports. Loa was always known to tell hilarious jokes and awesome stories, always known for his smirk and his mischievous laugh. One thing everyone loved about Loa is that it was a guarantee no matter what mood you were in, if you crossed paths with Loa, you would leave his presence laughing and smiling.

Loa is survived by his beloved wife Mabel Harris Longani of Salt Lake City, UT and one older brother Tevita Longani of Inglewood, CA as well as many first cousins who are more like brothers and sisters to him.

He is preceded in death by his loving parents Sione Naea Longani and Vela 'Aefehi Longani and also his oldest brother Sheldon Longani.

Funeral services for Isikelly Loa Longani will be held on Wednesday May 10th, 2017 at the LDS Chapel located at 660 North Redwood Road, Salt Lake City UT 84116. Viewing will be from 8am-11am followed by church services from 12pm-1pm.

Services are under the direction of Peni Malohifo'ou of Serenity Funeral Home

Isikelly Loa Longani will then be taken and buried in Los Angeles, CA.
