

Janet Ray Parkinson Robinson

December 16, 1936 - November 5, 2022

Janet Ray Parkinson Robinson 85, passed away November 5, 2022 in Highland, Utah. She was born December 16, 1936 to Ray and Eva Parkinson in Boise, Idaho. She spent her youth in Grangeville Idaho growing up with her younger brother Chauncey and helping her parents with their auto body shop, Ray's Auto Body. And square dancing in her parents dance hall. It was in Grangeville where she met George Franklin Robinson. They were married on June 18, 1954 in Elko, Nevada. They were later sealed July 6, 1962 in the Logan Utah Temple. They welcomed 5 children into their lives Blake, Debbie, Michael, Lorelee and Jennifer. They also enjoyed participating in the Native American Indian Placement Program where they hosted 4 children from the various tribes, into the home. Rosemary Decker, Alvina Dick, Johnny Begaye and Tonya Waseta. As a family they enjoyed going and visiting the families in Arizona and Nevada.

Mom loved staying up late sewing, making blankets, embroidering anything and everything, crocheting, tole painting and painting ceramics. She enjoyed cooking, canning and most of all attending BYU Education Week, and later torturing her family with her very very detailed notes from the classes she took.

Mom and dad took their family on many horse trips to the High Uintas, camping, vacations to Canada, Mexico and boating at Lake Powell. But they really loved the annual family camping trip to Big Johns Flat on the 24th of July. In their later years mom and dad loved to travel, going on cruises and traveling in their motorhome up the Oregon coast. She is preceded in death by her parents, and her husband of 67 years, who passed away nine months previous. She is survived by her children, Blake and Teresa Robinson, Debbie Robinson Sweat, Michael and Kelly Robinson, Loralee Robinson, Shawn and Jennifer Robinson Lewis. 22 grandchildren and 51 great grandchildren.
