“ I had to laugh at the tribute comment about Janine's "inappropriate sense of humor". That captured her personality beautifully. She was direct, straight-forward and if you didn't want to hear her honest opinion, you better not ask. I love her dearly. She was so fun to be around, so talented, and -- this may be a side of her not many may know -- very well-read. We talked books many, many times. Some of my best memories are rambling around in Uncle Burnell's car. I also loved to hear her sing -- what a voice! Love to you all. I'm just wondering how Heaven is handling this....
