“ Jill made me laugh on the cloudiest of days...She was kind and giving with such a sense of wit. Her engaging spirit and loving nature was a force of nature...My deepest condolences to all who loved her and knew how special she will always remain...brokenhearted, F. Iris Duran y Seijo

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. There is nothing that can prepare a person for the feelings of losing a family member.

The Bible describes Jehovah as a God of all comfort, at 2 Corinthians chapter 1 and verses 3-4. One scripture that has brought so many people comfort is Revelation chapter 21 and verses 3-5 because that describes a promise from God that is specifically touching to anyone who has experienced the pain of losing someone. Again, my deepest sympathies for your loss.

“ We express our sympathy and love to the family at Jill's passing. We remember her as a young girl in the ward and know that she was loved by friends and family. May you find comfort and peace at this time and in the coming months. We also remember her children as they came to school and visited the library. May they also find comfort and peace.

Love, Jennilyn & Keith Mauerman

“ Dear Jill. For the short time I have known you. You have shared with me your deepest sorrow. My heart ached and it seemed so unfair. All you wanted was to be forgiven, loved and accepted. To be invited during family gatherings. Now, on your funeral day. I know you will be there to hear all those loving and kind words that you wished you heard while you were living. You were such a kind, loving, giving and always there for anyone who needed support. Rest in Peace Jill and know that you have touched so many lives. You will always be loved by so many.

This is exactly what I wanted to say! Jill also shared with me the hurt she felt by not being accepted. I hope Jill now has a full understanding of all reasons and motives as I hope the reasons were not with ill intent. I will miss you forever Jill.

“ I accidentally stumbled across sweet Jill's obituary tonight. My heart is so sad that she has passed so young. I first met Jill at Lakeridge Jr. High, she was so fun and could always make me laugh. High school sent us different ways, but I was lucky to become reacquainted with Jill at the FHP clinic in Orem during the early 90's. She was still the kind friendly person I remembered. It breaks my heart that she had such hard struggles in life. Life seems cruel sometimes and struggles seem unfair. I appreciated the kind person she always was to me. May Heavenly Father's love for your family and especially her children, be evident at this difficult time and always.

“ Jill was my moms best friend before my mom passed away from depression and hurting. They met each other and ever since they were like best friends.

Jill added me on Facebook and I didn't know who she was so I asked my dad and she said that she was one of my moms bests friends.

And then after that she started talking to me and she would tell me things about my mom and she would make me feel positive about myself. Whenever I posted something negative about myself she would comment and say how beautiful I am and she just made me fee great about myself. She was a sweet and kind girl! I have never got to met her. Only when I was a little kid. And we were suppose to meet before she passed :( wish she wasn't gone. But at least you aren't depressed and is not in pain anymore. Now I have one more angel watching over me. Hope you and my mom have see each other up there already and is partying it up! I love you jill! You were the best! 😭💔💔
