

Jovita Andrade Reyes

February 15, 1953 - January 13, 2022

Jovita Andrade, 68, passed away on January 13th, 2022 in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was born and grew up in Tierra Blanca Veracruz where she helped take care of her siblings. She moved to California where she resided most of her life. She worked as a chef as she had a passion for cooking. She enjoyed seeing the smiles on the faces of the people who tried her food. She loved her grandchildren and her novelas and she enjoyed her time out by going to a good thrift shop. She was caring and she was beautiful.

She is survived by her daughter, Jenny Shaw and her grandsons Amaurii and Noah. She is preceded in death by her loving father Nemecio Andrade.
