“ Alaina and Scott (and your families), Just so glad that your parents are together again. Your Mom missed your Dad so very much! Judy always had a quick smile and a friendly outreach and was ready to share that with anyone in need. I greatly appreciated knowing her on this side of the veil and look forward to seeing them both again. I hope they are visiting with Glen and talking about "old times" here on Earth. Heaven is brighter with her smile. With Love, Allison Seabury
