

Justin Kay Morrison

April 7, 1989 - May 26, 2024

Justin Kay Morrison tragically passed away on May 26, 2024 while swimming with his boys. Justin was born April 7, 1989 to Sonja Behrendsen and Donald Kay Morrison.

Justin was known by many different names including Jmo, Redhead, Morrison, and the most important one dada. Justin's greatest accomplishment was being a dad, he loved his boys so much and couldn't wait until they were with him again on the weekends.

Justin was one of the most caring friends you could have. It didn't matter who you were Justin treated you like you were the most important person in the world. He was always the first one to check up on you if he thought something was wrong. Despite his own personal battles he was always there if you needed him. Justin was a hard worker, no matter what he was doing he gave it his all. His death leaves a whole that no one will be able to feel in the lives of so many.

Justin is survived by his mom and Step dad Sonja and Joe Warner, his boys Jensen and Elliott (Bobby), his sisters Alisha(Mike) Sorensen and Megan Warner, his nieces and nephew Kylie, Gracie, Jaxson, Addie, Ivy, and Millie, his Grandmas Hilda Bateman and Flo Morrison, his best friends Justin and Lauren Sharp, Tawsha McPhee and Kelly Bethers, along with many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He is preceded in death by his dad Donald Kay Morrison, his grandpas Larry Warner, Dennis Bateman, Gunter Behrendsen, and Kay Morrison.

There will be a viewing on Monday June 3, 2024 from 2:00-4:00 at Serenity Funeral Home 13863 S 2700 W, Bluffdale UT 84065.

There will also be a burial at a later date

We would like to thank everyone who has supported our family in this difficult time. It means so much to us and we know Justin would have been so grateful as well. <https://gofund.me/386a853f>

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 3. 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM (MT)

Serenity Event Center
13863 S 2700 W
Bluffdale, UT 84065

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Heide Ney - August 20, 2025 at 10:14 PM

HN

“ I hate final goodbyes and that is why I have procrastinated in posting here. The void Justin leaves as a son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, uncle, father, friend, is always there and so painful. I know we all try everyday, to fill the emptiness with positive memories of love and joy to honor him. Justin was full of life and his heart was warm and loving. His proudest role was as a loving father. My special chosen memory of Justin, is as a young boy, sitting under a tree, with a pot on his head, pretending he was Johnny Appleseed. It was a perfect example of his joyful essence and spirit. Oh, and I will never forget that handsome, dimpled smile! Justin struggled with sobriety. Family and friends brightened some of his dark days, but everyone's love and best intentions were not enough to help him manage his life and escape his demons. It is easy to be consumed by something that is beyond one's control, but Justin was not defined by his struggles. He showed us who he really was many times, someone capable of great kindness, generosity, humor and tenderness. Justin will be remembered not just for the hardships he endured, but for the person he was in all the moments when his true self shone through. i hope he has found peace and wherever my nephew will be, there my love will be also.
Love forever your Aunt Heide

Heide Ney - August 20, 2025 at 09:56 PM

JP

“ Jeri Peratis lit a candle in memory of Justin Kay Morrison

Jeri Peratis - June 01, 2024 at 09:59 PM

TM

“ Justin was one of my dearest friends, have known him since Kindergarten. I'm still trying to wrap my head around this...why?! Such a caring, giving, loving soul. We could go months without talking, but the second we saw eachother we just picked up where we left off. So many memories with him flooding my head. I will never forget his smile and happy go lucky personality. He would do anything for anyone, especially those he was closest to. Justin had so much love for me and never forgot to let me know. We had such a great friendship, more like a brother to me. Always telling my boyfriends to treat me right and even calling me a F$&%r; that was our thing. He will truly be missed and always have a place in my heart. I love you forever my friend...*

Tawsha McPhee - May 31, 2024 at 07:12 PM

CW

“ Christian Widener lit a candle in memory of Justin Kay Morrison

Christian Widener - May 31, 2024 at 04:00 PM

JW

“ Joe Warner lit a candle in memory of Justin Kay Morrison

Joe Warner - May 30, 2024 at 09:36 PM

JW

“ Hey Just, I can't believe I'm writing this. You weren't supposed to go before me, that's not how these things work! I miss you and will forever miss hearing your voice on the phone, watching Utes games with you, making you laugh, having you and the boys over with the rest of the family, ...all of it. I'm so shocked and saddened, my thoughts during these days and nights have been filled with memories of you. We were so excited for the start of this year's college football season. You would always have your Mom tell me it's only 85 days until the start of the season. You also asked me to go see the new Twister movie with you and I was really looking forward to it. To me you were a son, a little brother and a friend all wrapped into one. I'm so sorry this happened but I know you're in good company with your dearly missed dad, my dad (Grandpa Larry) and Grandpa Dennis. Thanks always for your kindness, for always helping us and others when we needed it and for being the smiling Justin we all knew through good times and bad. I love you, miss you and look forward to seeing you again. Love, Joe

Joe Warner - May 30, 2024 at 09:34 PM

MW

“ I never imagined I'd be writing something like this so soon, so young. This wasn't supposed to happen. He wasn't supposed to leave. I can't even formulate sentences in my head because I can't think straight. I have a hole in my heart that will never be filled again. My heart aches.

You were the greatest big brother to me. You loved me and Ivy so much. You were protective like any big brother should be to their little sister but I always could feel how much you cared. You supported me and cheered me on even when you were going through your own storms and battles of your own. When my world fell apart multiple times you were there to call me or be there for me. You always had some sense of knowing when someone needed something and to always reach out to them.

I will never forget all of our memories we created together. Life will never be the same without you big bro. I know you're up there now, with the rest of our loved ones looking down on us. I will never watch a Utes game without thinking about you. I love you with all my heart, Justin. My life will never be the same without you here. I will miss you so much. Your shit head little sister ❤️

Megan Warner - May 30, 2024 at 06:29 PM