

Kelley Ann Pierce

December 10, 1958 - June 13, 2026

Kelley Ann Pierce, 67, passed away peacefully while under hospice care at Monument Health Taylorsville in Salt Lake City, Utah, on June 13, 2026.

Kelley was born in Spokane, Washington, on December 10, 1958. Growing up, she also lived in Portland, Oregon, and Mountlake Terrace, Washington. After graduating in 1977 from Mountlake Terrace High School, she attended Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho, and served a mission in Louisiana for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints before moving to Utah, about 40 years ago.

Kelley was a very private and independent person. Even though she contended with many health challenges from a young age, she faced them with courage and grace. Her dazzling smile and beautiful blue eyes lit up the room. And when she laughed, you couldn't help but laugh, too, especially when she quoted lines from her favorite funny movies and tv shows.

She was a lifelong, loyal friend to those who earned her trust, and she had a kind and compassionate heart for all God's creation, especially the weak and those less fortunate. Her religious beliefs as a devout Mormon were the foundation and center of her life and always brought her solace and peace and joy.

Kelley was preceded in death by her parents, Donald and Beverley Pierce, her niece, Tammy Jo Chapin Gilbert, and her grandparents Clifford Littlejohn, Dorothy Littlejohn Wood, and Richard Wood (Step-grandfather), and Harry Pierce, Elsie Pierce Skoog and Goldie Pierce (Step-grandmother).

She is survived by her sisters, Donna Pierce Chapin Jump and Lexie Pierce Jarvis, her nephews Shane Chapin (Dana), Darrick Jarvis (Marc), and Blake Jarvis (Lacy), grandnephews Bo Chapin (Natasha) and Miles Jarvis, and great-niece Meela Chapin.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your local food bank or animal shelter in memory of Kelley Ann Pierce.

A memorial service will be held at Serenity Funeral Home, 13863 S. 2700 W., Bluffdale, UT, 84065, at 1:00 p.m., on Friday, June 19, 2026. A burial ceremony will follow at Crescent Cemetery, 11105 S. State St., Sandy, UT, 84070, at 2:30.
