

Kepa Fangalua Maumau

June 6, 1960 - January 17, 2020

Kepa Fangalua Maumau, 59, of Salt Lake City Utah returned back to our Heavenly Father on January 17, 2020 by his wife and children.

He was born June 6, 1960 in Kolomotu'a, Tonga. The son of late Taniela Huluava Maumau and Sulia Ungatea Longani. He has three siblings; Mataiasi Finau (Saineha Taufu), Teleisia (Leisi Kaea), Lesieli Maumau (Fisilau Valikoula). He is married to Ailini Ane Heimuli (July 2, 1982) who survives.

Kepa was a great musician, known as a great banjo player and singer. He played the guitar just as well and has recorded cover songs, written original Tongan music and performed for special occasions such as weddings, birthdays, graduations, luaus and more. Touched many lives with his music and voice but most of all his personality. He always put a smile or laugh with everyone he crossed paths with even in the most serious moments. He had a big heart and any time he had the chance to do something for someone he would do it and go all out for them. Kepa definitely will be missed by us all.

Kepa is survived by his seven children five daughters and two sons. The oldest being twins, Rachel (Keith Leota) and Cindy (Tevita Maumau), Caroline (Lee Figueroa), Daniel, Kepa Jr., Julia (Pete Serrato) & Masina (Feleti Jr Moimoi). He has 22 grandchildren and counting. Kepa loved to be surrounded by his family, wife, kids, grandchildren, his siblings and their kids especially during his last days.

Kepa wanted to celebrate his life with all his loved ones, friends and family. Please join us in a night of sweet melodies and memories.

“ This man was an inspiration to everyone he spoke to, and had relations with. Mr. Music , the most talented person through music ,work, knowledge and life. I always looked up to him as a father figure and was always happy to run into him or visit him. He was my dads partner in crime and we always be with our families. You left behind a beautiful family. You are gone now but you will never be forgotten, love you unc. And may you be smiling with your parents as you breeze through heaven on your own way wind, rest in love KEPA MAUMAU
