

Kristina Nicole Niles

April 12, 1989 - April 13, 2024

Our beloved daughter, sister and friend Kristina Nicole Niles passed away on April 13, 2024. She was celebrating her 35th birthday when she fatally choked on a piece of steak. Kristina worked hard battling demons and had recently found sober happiness. She graduated from Tooele High and the College of Eastern Utah. She married Derek VonHatten. They later divorced but remained good friends. Kristina served six years in the Army National Guard.

Kristina loved the outdoors and especially enjoyed hiking and rock hounding. She was a gifted artist and made many beautiful drawings. She loved animals and had many pets throughout her life including an iguana, turtles, hamsters, and of course cats and her favorite dog, Skye.

She is survived by her mother, Lorrie Hall (Jim), brother, Robert Niles (Becca), grandfather, Shirl Bale and “Aunt” Wanda and “Uncle” Jim Middleton. She was preceded in death by her father, William Niles, aunt, Cynthia Williams, and her favorite grandma, Judy Bale.

There will be a Celebration of Life honoring Kristina on Saturday, April 27th from 1:00 – 3:00 PM at Springhouse Village Clubhouse, 11614 Holly Springs Dr. South Jordan UT 84009.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to CAWS.org. This wonderful organization took Kristina's two fur babies.
