“ I knew Laurene in the mission field. We were together for a brief time as a threesome before another sister missionary came out to be her companion. We were so surprised that we had the same first name, spelled the same. She told me that she was named after her two grandmothers and I told her it was the same for me. The description of her is exactly how I would describe her. Though I knew her for a brief time those qualities and attributes shown through with great clarity!
