“ I had the opportunity to work with Laurie at Sundance Catalog. She was a very intelligent and classy woman who always had a pleasant smile. One of the brightest programmers I have ever worked with. I also had the opportunity to know her very creative husband. I recall a very warm and pleasant experience having an IT Department dinner in their home for Christmas one year. They were the very entertaining hosts and we all had a most warm & memorable evening with them. They both had uniquely contrasting character which made for a perfectly balanced couple. So sorry to hear they both had their lives cut short with so much more to offer this often boring world! I want to wish my most sincere condolences to all her family and friends!

“ A temporary good-bye to my sweet sister Laurie. I've many fond memories of growing up together - family campouts, your teasing me about the girls I was dating, your happiness over my own happy events, such as my marriage to Kathy, dancing with you at your marriage, and on and on.

I'm so sorry it's over but I'm sure you've had a very happy reunion with Russ, and dad and Elaine, Brenda, grandma Trudi, grandma and grandpa Anderson, and many others.

It's only a temporary separation but it feels like a long time already. I'll never stop loving you, and I'll see you soon.

“ Missing your sense of humor and laughter! Wish you were still here. The memories of when our parents met and got married and the times we had together were so memorable and fun to think of. Always teasing each other of who the worst one between the two of us:) Rest in peace with our parents and your loved ones. You are greatly missed!

*Love,
Danette*
