Laurynda Gae Golightly, 62, died in her sleep early Sunday, May 21, 2017, at home after succumbing to prolonged health problems.

She is also survived by her four brothers Gary Duane Golightly, Provo; Kim Oliver Golightly (married to Anne Ashworth Golightly), Bethesda, Maryland; Kyle Golightly (married to Michelle Briggs Golightly), Orem; and Guy Golightly

(married to Chris Call Golightly), Spanish Fork; and by many nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews and cousins. She also is survived by her half-brother, Steven C. Giuntini, whom she was delighted to discover just a few years ago.

She also leaves her dear friend, Mark O'Reilly who has loved and cared for Laury for the last twelve years.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Max and Beverly Golightly, by her son, McGavin Lonnie Moore and daughter, Ally Megan.

Services will be held on Saturday, May 27, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the Valley View 2nd Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 4395 South, Albright Drive, Holladay, Utah. “ Laury- you were always the prettiest, tiniest cousin and how you delighted in the most innocent kinds of mischief when we were girls! I always adored you and will miss being at your Sing Away. Laury, you made your precious mark in this world and made a lot of people happy. Now, go and be at peace, tiny girl.
