Lina “Iupeli” Sefo Mageo

July 25, 1956 – April 23, 2024

On Tuesday evening, surrounded by her kids, grandkids, and loving family, Lina Sefo Mageo took her final breath and returned home to her Father in Heaven. She spent her last days being lovingly cared for by her daughter and son-in-law, Va’imaila and Fisi Tu’atonga, in their home, along with their five children who loved their Grandma very much and served her faithfully.

Lina was born in Fagatogo, American Samoa on July 25, 1956 to Sefo Falaniko and Savai’inaea

Va’imaila Ietitaia Fa’amausili. She was raised lovingly by her mother and father – Fa’amausili Tavita. The family joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and moved to California in 1969. While in California the family welcomed many extended family members and the house was always full of laughter, food, and love. The family later settled in Murray,

Utah in 1994. The home in Murray was home base for all of the extended family in Utah and Sunday dinners were looked forward to every week. Lina lovingly cared for her mother in her last days, and devoted her life to her family. She was endowed in the Oquirrh Mountain Temple in 2019.

Lina graduated from Santiago High School. She went on to work as a mortgage loan underwriter, and other various occupations over the years, but enjoyed caring for her family most. She was happiest playing her ukulele and singing with her family, laughing and telling stories. Every occasion was celebrated with anyone who could attend, no invitation necessary. Her children were her greatest blessings and nothing gave her more joy than welcoming each of her seven Grandchildren. She shared a bond with each of them, and they all had a turn being her favorite.

Lina is survived by her sisters, Malia Falaniko and Loma Stowers, brother Daniel Fa'amausili (Crystal); children Jeddy Allen Peko, Jason David Peko (Kristen), and Va'imaila Tu'atonga (Fisi); grandchildren Melissah, Fisi Jr., Viliami, Deyannah, and Dave Tu'atonga; Liliana and Jaedyn Peko. She is also survived by many cousins, nieces, nephews, and other extended family, whom she loved with all her heart.

Lina is preceded in death by her father and mother, brothers Sefo Falaniko and David Fa'amausili, sisters Nellie Sefo and Deborah Fa'amausili, and a niece, Tamara Nu'usila.

The family would like to thank all of the extended family and friends who have shown their love and support over the past week. Your kindness and generosity is forever appreciated.
