

Lisa Johnson Thomas

August 27, 1958 - January 6, 2020

Lisa Johnson Thomas, 61, passed away peacefully in her home on January 6, 2020 after a nine year courageous battle with breast cancer. She remained amazingly positive, hopeful, resilient, and completely selfless until the very end.

Creative, vivacious, and compassionate, Lisa was born in Salt Lake City, Utah on August 27, 1958. She was the daughter of Dolores Lucille Jentsch and Lorin Lamar Johnson. A vegan since 2001, she was a true animal lover and cared for her loved ones and companions deeply. After surviving a difficult childhood with abuse, multiple foster homes, and homelessness, she strongly believed in justice and promoted a compassionate lifestyle through animal rescue and veganism. She fiercely protected her children from harm and taught them genuine, selfless love.

Lisa and Stan formed a close friendship several years before they were married on December 19, 1981. Lisa loved spending time with her husband, family, and companion animals, particularly watching outlandish scary movies while crocheting and crafting. She was always generous with her time and limited resources.

Lisa was a very loving and generous daughter, sister, wife, mother, and grandmother. She is survived, and greatly missed by her devoted husband and best friend, Stanton Bruce Thomas; along with her children Dexter Mel Thomas, Jason Rudolph Thomas; her daughter-in-laws Natalie Dawn Thomas and Amy Marie Thomas; and her beloved cats and fish. She is also survived by her brothers Steven Jay Johnson, Scott Lorin Johnson, Spencer Jeffrey Johnson, her two grandchildren Bruce Rowen Thomas and Julian Glenn Thomas, her grandpuppy Raimi Thomas, and many grand kitties.

Lisa will never be forgotten and she will always be loved.

Lisa requested that she not have a funeral, but instead a Celebration of Life and the planting of seeds she chose and said, "the bees will love".

“ I always looked forward to seeing Lisa, I would see her in clinic, she always had a smile on her face and very positive. She will be greatly missed by myself and so many. My thoughts and prayers are with Stan and the family. It was an honor knowing her for the many years at Huntsman.

“ My heart is broken! When Lisa died a piece of my heart died. Lisa and I were the best of friends for over 40 years. We attended each other's weddings, shared each other's experiences through having and raising our kids, and we even attended each other's kid's weddings along with the excitement of having grandkids. We messaged each other almost daily. Lisa was smart, creative, talented, passionate and caring! She was the best friend a person could ask for and I was fortunate to have had her in my life over 40 years. I am so very sad about her passing and will forever miss her!

“Lisa is my sister-in-law. I don't remember my life without Lisa in it. I was so young when Lisa and Stan started their relationship. I don't think she had a biological sister? I don't. I have always considered her my sister. She has been sweet, loving and supportive through all my trials in life. We have danced and laughed and cried. I could always count on Lisa to listen and love me unconditionally. She will be missed but live on forever in my heart and memories. Stan, Dexter and Jason may all the memories of good times shared help you through this difficult time. All my love, always

“Lisa was my cousin. Even though we didn't talk a lot I thought of her often and I know she thought of me! We spent many a time at my mom and dad's house when she was younger. She told me not to long ago those were some of her best times. I want Stan to know that when he met Lisa and got married, he literally saved her life. How much love they shared. My thoughts are with Stan and his 2 boys. I will plant some seeds for her and the "Bees will love them."

This is kind of late to post this but I loved my sister Lisa and was very fond of her and her gentle and sweet nature. My last interaction will always be with me as I hugged her at Dad's funeral. I love you Lisa..
