July 8, 1933 - February 14, 2016

Lisiate (Richard) Patelione Mahele Inukihaangnana 82 passed away 6:51 AM February 14th 2016 in San Antonio, Texas

Richard was born July 8th, 1933 in Ma'ufanga, Tonga. Parents: Tuakalau Lele Mahele Inukihaangana and Kolona Lose Emeliana Puamau.

He was married to Mele Mosiana Masima, later divorced.

He married Patricia Kay Sellers on October 3rd, 1973 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Richard was a hard worker, he worked his whole life to provide and support his family. In Tonga he grew up on a plantation where he learned the values of hard work. He often worked away from his family to give them a better life, he went places such as New Caledonia and New Zealand to support his family.

Later he came to the United States where he met Patricia Sellers in August of 1973 at a young single adult dance at the old Terrace Ballroom in Salt Lake City, Utah, they were later sealed in the Mesa, Arizona temple in 1978. Richard would do anything for his family. He came to America to give his family a chance at the American dream. He brought his children from Tonga, later his brother and sisters.

He loved spending time with his family attending family functions, enjoyed watching his grand children, great grandchildren and taking them to church. Richard loved visiting his children all over the country from South Dakota to California, from Arizona to Utah., from Nevada to Texas. He was always in the company of his family.

He survived by his wife Patricia Kay Sellers, Daughter: Kolona Inukihaangana Mailei (Ekiloni Mailei} their children Andrew Mailei (Candice Hansen), Aisea Mailei (Vika Moli) Michael Mailei.
