

Losaline Moala 'Alatini

July 20, 1943 - February 17, 2018

With heavy hearts, the family of Losaline Moala Alatini announce her passing on February 17, 2018 at LDS Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah at the age of 74. Known also as Mom, Sister, Grandma, and Moala, she is finally reunited with her Heavenly Father and Eternal companion, Helu Palatavake Alatini.

She was born to a family of 14 siblings on July 20, 1943 in Pangai, Ha'apai Tonga to Tevita and Sesika Makalo. Moala will be remembered for her warm, beautiful, and contagious smile.

She was a woman who centered her life around Jesus Christ and helped others to do the same. She was selfless, loving, charitable, and hard working. Her spirit was the glue that strengthened our family as a whole. Moala went the extra mile to serve others in their time of need. Her purses filled with bright flavored candies was a treat well known by every child.

Her presence and voice will be greatly missed, as she touched many lives through her service, faith, testimony, life-lessons, and love for her family. We love you so much Grandma Moala, Gob be with u till we meet again!

Moala is survived by her 14 children:
