

Lusiana Mapuolesega Fau'olo

December 18, 1929 - December 12, 2023

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved matriarch, Lusiana Mapuolesega Fau'olo of West Jordan. Surrounded by her cherished family, Lusiana peacefully departed this life on December 12, 2023.

She was born on December 18, 1929, to her loving parents Agaolei'a Aumoeualogo from Amouli/Aoa American Samoan and Kilisitina Afusia Mapuolesega from Sailele/Aoa, American Samoa.

Lusiana is preceded in death by her beloved husband Reverend Tau'ilili Lemanu Fuifatu Tunu Fau'olo from Fusi, Safotulafai Savai'i , and her daughter, Tise Fau'olo. She is survived by her devoted son, Fetai'a'imauso Franklin John Fau'olo (Sola 'Olive Fau'olo), and her cherished daughter, Salavaoalemasina Clara Fau'olo, along with her eight adoring grandchildren and nine beloved great-grandchildren.

Lusiana's educational journey began at an all-girls school in Atauloma in American Samoa before she pursued and achieved her Associates of Arts degree at Honolulu Community College in Oahu, Hawaii.

She passionately applied her acquired skills and talents throughout her life, excelling in various samoan crafts such as making titi, seis, silk screening, playing cricket and dancing. Her joyous spirit was ever-present, always radiating warmth and cheerfulness in everything she did.

A dedicated member of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Lusiana lived by the principle of placing God first, a value she imparted to her family.

She exemplified a life of service, extending her love and care to the communities of Los Angeles, California, Pearl City, Hawaii, and West Valley City, Utah.

Her legacy of love, faith, and service will forever resonate within the hearts of all who knew her, but especially her great grandchildren.
