

Lynda Lee O'Campo

July 28, 1945 - March 15, 2022

Passed away on March 15th, 2022, in West Jordan, Utah

Lynda was born July 28th, 1945, in Los Angeles, Ca. to Clarence & Dixie Todden

Lynda married Gregory James O'Campo.

They were married in Covina, Ca. on June 14th, 1965. They had two sons, Gregory James O'Campo Jr and Eugene Louis O'Campo.

After 25 years of marriage, they would be blessed to renew their wedding vows to one another on June 14th, 1990, at Catalina Island, Ca.

After 50 years of marriage, they would again be blessed to be able to renew their wedding vows to one another on June 14th, 2015, in West Jordan, Utah.

Lynda was a hard worker all her life, she loved to work, play and spend time with family. Lynda was an amazing and passionate crafter. Lynda also loved frogs, and the color red! She would make beautiful scrapbooks and cards with the most amazing photo pages for the grandchildren.

Lynda loved being a grandma, she was blessed with 4 grandchildren Rachel,

Saxon, TJ, and Sara she was blessed again with 2 great grandchildren Jayde-Lynn and Parker Rae.

She moved to Utah to be closer to the kids while they were growing up, after living in California for over 60 years, the kids enjoyed living so close to their grandparents while growing up. We all enjoyed having them here with us, helping us. Lynda was always very generous to her family and friends.

Lynda is Preceded in death by: Father, Mother,

Service information: Saturday, March 19th at 4:00PM MST

Special Thank you to Valeo Home Health and Hospice for all of their gentle care for Lynda.
